INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

BUSINESS RELATED RISKS

- Our order book may not be representative of our future results. Projects included in our order book and our future projects may be delayed, modified or cancelled for reasons beyond our control which may materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, reputation, profitability, financial condition and results of operation.

Our order book sets forth our expected revenues from uncompleted portions of the contracts received, any delay or cancellation of our projects, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As at September 30, 2025, the value of our order book stands at ₹ 10,307.07 Lakhs. Our order book comprises anticipated revenues from the unexecuted portions of existing contracts (which are accepted contracts for which all preconditions have been met).

There can be no assurance that our order book will actually be realized as revenues or, if realized, will result in profits. In accordance with industry practice, most of our contracts are subject to cancellation or suspension, in accordance with contractual arrangements, at the discretion of the client at any stage of the contract. The completion of our orders involves various execution risks which may restrain us from completing our orders within the scheduled time including order delays, modifications in the scope or cancellations may occur from time to time, due to delay in payments by our customers or due to our own defaults, incidents of force majeure, cash flows problems, regulatory delays and any other factor beyond our control. In view of the above, projects can remain in order book for extended periods of time because of the nature of the project and the timing of the particular services required by the project. Further, the time between when the design is finalised and when the project is completed could extend to several months, and prior to executing a project, our clients may subject to the terms of the contractual arrangements, modify our scope or cancel our appointment, without cause. Further, any decision by our clients to reduce their outsourcing budgets or their inability to place service requests due to budgetary or other constraints could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. A large portion of our order book is from large contracts with a few customers, increasing the potential volatility of our results and exposure to individual contract risks. While, the aforementioned events have not occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however occurrence of any such events could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition. In order to mitigate risks relating to termination or delay of orders, our Company maintains a diversified customer base and in case of cancellation or delay of orders, we redirect our resources to other ongoing and upcoming projects. Additionally, our Company also typically executes supply and installation contracts containing terms such as milestone-linked payments to ensure cash flow and reduce non-performance risk.

- Our business is dependent on certain key customers and the loss of any of these customers or loss of revenue from sales to any key customers could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We derive a significant portion of our revenue from our top ten customers. We primarily cater to reputed developers, construction firms and institutional projects including schools & hospitals. We derive a significant portion of our revenue from our top 10 customers and loss of all or a substantial portion of sales due to loss of business relationship from any of our top 10 customers, could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. While we believe there has been no significant loss of any of our top 10 customers in the last three Fiscals, we continue to serve a mix of new, repeat, and long-standing customers. However, there can be no assurance that such instances of customer loss will not arise in the future.

The following table summarizes the revenue contribution from our top ten customers for the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and for the Financial Years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023:

Further, the volume and timing of sales to our top 10 customers may vary due to variation in demand for such customers' products or on account of their growth strategy. Thus, any decrease in the demand for our products or services from our top 10 customers, or a termination of our arrangements altogether, would adversely impact our results of operations, financial condition and cash flow. These customers may change their outsourcing strategy by moving more work in-house, replace us with our competitors, or replace their existing products with alternative products which we do not supply. Also, these customers may demand price reductions and there is no assurance that we will be able to offset any reduction of prices to these customers with reductions in our costs or by acquiring new customers.

3. We do not have firm commitment agreements with our customers. If our customers choose not to source their requirements from us, there may be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We do not enter into formal agreements or arrangements with our customers and typically rely on blanket purchase orders issued by our customers from time to time that set out the price per unit of the products that are to be fabricated and supplied by us. Pursuant to the purchase order, our customers provide us the product specification, quantities of units to be supplied along with the delivery schedules specifying the details of delivery. In the event our customers terminate their arrangements with us or commit defaults in payment of amounts owed to us, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be impacted. In order to mitigate the risks relating to default, we typically include advance payments as part of our payment arrangements with majority of our customer, thereby securing us from risks relating to default or delayed payment.

Due to the absence of long-term agreements with our customers, the actual sales by our Company may differ from the estimates of our management. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain historic levels of business and/or negotiate and execute terms of arrangements with our customers that are commercially viable or that we will be able to significantly reduce customer concentration in the future. In the absence of formal agreements, if our customers arbitrarily terminate work orders or fail to make payment towards the products offered by us, we may not be in a position to claim compensation. While there have been instances in the past three Fiscals and the six-months period ended September 30, 2025, wherein our Company failed to renew its arrangements with its customers, however we cannot assure you that such instances will not occur in the future and will not adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

4. Our business and profitability are substantially dependent on the availability and the cost of our raw materials and components consumed for which we rely on third parties. Any disruption in timely and adequate supply of the raw materials, or volatility in the prices of raw materials or failure to maintain cordial relations with our suppliers may adversely impact our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our cost of raw materials and components consumed which primarily consists of aluminum, glass, accessories. Aluminum is a commodity and is subject to fluctuation on account of global geopolitical events such as the war between Russian-Ukraine, tensions in the Middle East and Central Asian regions.

Further, we procure our raw materials from third parties based on purchase orders and Letter of Intent (LoI) and typically do not enter into long terms agreements with our suppliers. The absence of any long-term agreements for firm commitments of quantities at fixed prices and the need to maintain a continued supply of raw materials may make it difficult to resist price increases imposed by our suppliers. We are therefore exposed to volatility in the prices of our key raw materials. While there have been no instances where our suppliers have discontinued supplies to us in the past three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, we may be unable to find suitable suppliers in case where our suppliers discontinue supplies. Majority of our customer orders are based on fixed or pre-determined prices which makes it difficult for us to pass on the increased price to our customers. While we seek to pass on the increase in cost of raw materials, especially aluminum to our customers, our cash flows may be adversely affected in case of a gap in time between the date of procurement of our raw materials and the date on which we can reset the raw material prices for our customers, to account for the increase in the prices of such raw materials.

The following table sets forth the expenses incurred from purchases undertaken from top ten suppliers in the years indicated:

Further, we may encounter problems in timely execution of an order in case of delay by a supplier on a timely basis. While there have been no instances during the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, where any of our customers have defaulted in payment or cancelled their orders due to delay in supply of raw material by supplier which could have a material adverse impact on our business and operations, we cannot assure you that there will be no cancellation on account of default or delay in supply of raw materials by our suppliers in the future. Any cancellation, modification, delay or default in supply of raw materials could materially harm our cash flow position, revenues and earnings.

We design, manufacture, and install customised aluminium and glass glazing solutions tailored to the specific requirements of our customers. Any failure by our design team to accurately estimate project costs or execute orders effectively could adversely impact our business operations, financial performance, condition, and cash flows. While our design team enable us to develop customized products, adapt to evolving industry trends, and meet customer preferences, delays in introducing suitable products or services for new industry sectors, or the inability to offer products at competitive prices, may result in existing and potential customers opting for competitors' offerings. While we have not faced any such instance in the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure you that such instance will not occur in future.

5. Our projects are generally awarded to us upon meeting prescribed pre-qualification requirements and through a competitive bidding process. Any failure to secure new project awards may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our contracts are primarily secured through a competitive bidding process, subject to pre-qualification criteria such as net worth, technical experience, execution capacity, reputation for quality, safety record, financial strength, bonding capacity and prior track record in similar projects. For major projects, customers generally invite bids only from pre-qualified contractors, with price competitiveness being a key selection criterion. Our ability to bid for and secure projects depends on demonstrating experience in similar or larger projects, along with strong execution capabilities and credentials to undertake complex assignments. The growth of our business is significantly dependent on our ability to obtain new contracts, the timing of their award, and successful execution within stipulated timelines. Given the inherent uncertainties, it is difficult to predict whether and when we will be awarded new projects. Any failure to qualify, secure or execute such contracts in a timely manner may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

6. Our manufacturing unit and our operations are geographically concentrated in Gujarat. Consequently, we are exposed to risks from economic, regulatory and other developments which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, our continued operations are critical to our business and any shutdown of our manufacturing unit may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our manufacturing unit and our business operations are located in Gujarat. The economic and regulatory condition in Gujarat may be affected by various factors outside our control, including prevailing local, social and economic conditions, changes in the applicable governmental regulations, demographic trends, changes in regulations governing employment of labourers, fluctuation in the income levels and interest rates, among other factors. Further, since our manufacturing unit are concentrated in Gujarat any political disruption, natural calamities or civil disruptions, opposition and protests, particularly in locations where we operate in Gujarat, could adversely affect our business operations or strategy. There is no assurance that such disruption in business operations would not bring any hindrance in the functioning of our manufacturing unit. We cannot assure you that we will not experience work disruptions in the future resulting from any economic or regulatory downturn in Gujarat, which may hinder our regular operating activities and lead to disruptions in our operations, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. While we have not faced any such instance in the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure you that such instance will not occur in future.

7. Due to the seasonal nature of the industry we operate in, we may not be able to achieve complete utilisation of the manufacturing unit, which in turn could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operation.

We are engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, and installing a wide range of aluminium and glass products, including windows, doors, curtain walls, cladding, and glazing systems. Accordingly, our products experience an increase in demand in the third and fourth quarters of a Financial Year. During the second half of the year, the construction activities experience an increase, to prepare for the upcoming summer and monsoon seasons and ease of construction on account of reduction of rains and heat. A quarter-wise break-up of the revenue from operations earned by our Company is provided below for the years indicated:

As certified by Shah & Patel, Chartered Accountants, Statutory and Peer Review Auditor by way of their certificate dated December 01, 2025.

We have historically experienced seasonal fluctuation in our sales, with higher sales volumes associated with the third and fourth quarter of each Financial Year. These seasonal variations in consumer demand subject our sector to a considerable degree of volatility. As a result, our revenue and profits may vary during different quarters of the financial year and certain periods may not be indicative of our financial position for a full financial year or future quarters or periods and may be below market expectations. Further, any unanticipated decrease in demand for our products during our peak selling season could result into higher closing inventory position, which may lead to sale and liquidation of inventory getting delayed against the trajectory under normal course of business, which could adversely affect our financial position and business operations.

In addition, our business requires us to carry a significant amount of inventory, especially prior to peak selling seasons when we build up our inventory levels. Since our business is seasonal in nature, we are vulnerable to non-availability of products during the peak season where there are higher number of footfalls. Such instances may lead to our customers approaching our competitors. This may lead to a reduction in our customer base. Further, we are vulnerable to demand and pricing shifts and to suboptimal selection and timing of production. If sales do not meet expectations, too much inventory may lower planned margins. Our brand image may also suffer if customers believe we are no longer able to offer the requisite amount of products. The occurrence of these events could adversely affect our cash flows, financial condition and business operations.

8. We are dependent on our manufacturing unit, and any loss, or shutdown, or under-utilization of the production capacities of our manufacturing unit may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our business is substantially dependent on the operations of our manufacturing unit at Rajoda, Ahmedabad. The facility is subject to various operational risks such as breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply interruptions, shortage of raw materials, performance below expected efficiency levels, obsolescence, production outages, industrial accidents, natural disasters, labour unrest, and the need to comply with evolving regulatory requirements. We may also be required to temporarily shut down our facility for capacity expansions, enhancements, or equipment upgrades. While we seek to maintain high-capacity utilization, there is no assurance that we will be able to fully utilize our installed capacity at all times. Any prolonged or significant disruption at our manufacturing unit could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Further, the success of our past and proposed capacity investments depends on our ability to obtain requisite regulatory approvals on time, recruit and retain skilled personnel, absorb additional infrastructure costs, and optimize our product mix. Our profitability is also dependent on demand and supply conditions in our target markets, as well as our ability to maintain a balance between high-margin products and products with consistent long-term demand. In particular, under-utilization of capacity—whether in the short term or over extended periods—could result in operational inefficiencies, impact return on investment from capital expenditure, and adversely affect our financial performance.

The following table sets forth details of the installed capacity and capacity utilization of our Manufacturing Facility for the periods indicated:

Particulars	September 30, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Installed Capacity (Square feet)	15,00,000	15,00,000	6,00,000	6,00,000
Capacity Utilization (Square feet)	5,21,228	7,27,433	5,73,314	4,29,512
Capacity Utilization (%)	34.75%	48.49%	95.55%	71.58%

As certified by M/s Multi Engineers, Mr. Vishal Shah, Independent Chartered Engineer vide his certificate dated November 26, 2025 & August 20, 2024.

These capacity utilization levels are not necessarily indicative of future performance and may vary depending on demand for our products, supply of raw materials, operational efficiency, labour conditions, utility supply, and overall industry and market dynamics. Any sustained under-utilization or disruption at our manufacturing unit may materially and adversely affect our business, growth prospects, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

9. The Company has, in the past, experienced delays and non-compliances in filing e-forms with the Registrar of Companies (“RoC”), including annual returns, financial statements, and charge-related forms. While no regulatory actions or penalties have been imposed to date except below mentioned, there is no assurance that such actions will not be levied in the future. The Company cannot guarantee that similar delays will not occur in the future, and if regulatory authorities impose penalties or take punitive actions against the Company or its directors/officers, it could negatively affect the Company’s business and financial condition.

The Company has, in the past, experienced delayed filings of annual accounts, annual returns, and charge-related forms, some of which were submitted beyond the statutory timeline but regularized within extended limits by payment of additional fees and penalties. In addition, there have been instances of incorrect or incomplete disclosures, including unsigned returns, inaccurate shareholding patterns, missing annexures such as Director’s Reports, MGT-9 and AOC-2, and inconsistencies between financial data reported in filings and audited statements. The Company has also had instances of non-compliance with Secretarial Standards, particularly in relation to AGM notices and explanatory statements, as well as alterations to the Memorandum and Articles of Association not being duly certified. Further, there have been omissions in mandatory filings, including non-filing of certain MSME-1 half-yearly returns. While the Company has taken corrective measures and paid the applicable additional fees, there can be no assurance that similar lapses will not occur in the future, and any recurrence may attract regulatory scrutiny, penalties, and reputational risks, which could adversely affect the Company’s operations, governance record, and financial condition.

Although no regulatory actions or penalties have been imposed on the Company to date in respect of these errors, such discrepancies may be subject to regulatory scrutiny in the future, and there can be no assurance that such errors will not affect the Company's compliance standing. If any issues were to arise as a result of these incorrect filings, it could adversely impact the Company's reputation, governance record, and financial condition, and may lead to monetary penalties or other regulatory actions.

These errors occurred during the early stages of the Company's operations, when its organizational structure was still developing and a dedicated Compliance Officer had not been appointed. At that time, the Company was dependent entirely on an external practicing Company Secretary for its secretarial and regulatory compliance requirements. While the Company has since strengthened its compliance and secretarial functions, including the appointment of a qualified Company Secretary and implementation of internal compliance monitoring systems, there can be no assurance that similar delays or oversights will not occur in the future. Any such lapses could attract regulatory consequences and have an adverse effect on the Company's business, operations, and ability to raise capital.

10. Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to the new manufacturing facility at Rajoda, Ahmedabad are subject to risks of unanticipated delays, cost overruns, regulatory hurdles, and we may not be able to derive the intended benefits from the project.

We intend to utilise a portion of the Net Issue Proceeds, aggregating to ₹ 1,829.80 lakhs, towards part financing the cost of setting up an enhanced manufacturing facility at Rajoda, Ahmedabad for aluminium and glass glazing solutions for façade work. The proposed facility, which includes an assembly and glazing line of approximately 65 meters with automatic lifting platforms and 26 plate brackets, is estimated to commence commercial production by August 2026. The objective of this expansion is to improve operational efficiency, reduce manual intervention, and equip the Company to tap growth opportunities.

However, our capacity expansion plans are subject to several risks, including but not limited to: escalation in costs of equipment, machinery, or manpower; inadequate performance of equipment and machinery installed; delays in construction, installation, or completion; defects in design or construction; unforeseen engineering problems; labour shortages or disputes; delays in receiving regulatory and statutory approvals; incremental pre-operating expenses; unforeseen taxes, duties, interest, finance charges, environmental or ecological costs; and other external factors beyond our control. We have not entered into definitive agreements with vendors for utilities, equipment, and machinery, and the eventual suppliers, costs, and timelines may vary. Any delay in placement of orders or deviation in quotations could extend the proposed schedule and increase costs.

Further, our management will have broad discretion in the deployment of Net Issue Proceeds, and the funding requirements may be revised depending on business and financial conditions, market dynamics, vendor negotiations, changes in design or configuration, or fluctuations in interest or exchange rates. We have not identified any alternate sources of funding for this project, and any shortfall or delay in raising funds from this issue, or inability to secure additional financing, may negatively impact the implementation of the project. If our actual capital expenditures significantly exceed our budgets, or if sales growth does not materialize as anticipated, we may not be able to utilize the expanded capacities fully or achieve the expected returns from such investments.

There can be no assurance that the proposed expansion will be completed as planned or on schedule, or that it will result in anticipated improvements in our growth, revenues, or profitability. Any delay, cost overrun, or underutilization of the proposed facility could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. For further information, see “Objects of the Issue – Funding capital expenditure to set up assembly & glass glazing line at Rajoda, Ahmedabad for façade work” on page 110 of this Prospectus.

- 11. *We may face challenges in introducing new engineering processes or adapting to evolving customer preferences in a timely and effective manner. Additionally, if our services become obsolete due to advancements or the emergence of alternative products, the demand for our engineering services and products may decline. Such circumstances could materially and adversely affect our business operations, cash flows, financial performance, and overall financial condition.

We rely on our ability to anticipate and respond to changes in customer preferences, develop and offer products and services that meet customer requirements, and manufacture these products efficiently and cost-effectively. Customer preferences, however, are subject to various external factors beyond our control, including the pricing of alternative products and prevailing economic conditions. To remain competitive, we continuously strive to enhance our innovation capabilities, enabling us to differentiate ourselves from competitors by introducing new products, services, and variations of existing offerings aligned with customer preferences and market demand.

While we strive to identify trends and introduce new services or products, customer preferences are inherently unpredictable and can shift rapidly. There is no assurance that such services will be commercially viable, effective, or accepted by our customers. Introducing a new service requires the successful completion of multiple steps, including engineering, obtaining necessary approvals and registrations, implementing effective marketing strategies, and scaling our vendor, production, and infrastructure networks to adjust or expand production capacity. We cannot assure that we will successfully implement timely and cost-effective enhancements or additions to our infrastructure, or that we will keep pace with advancements to meet customer needs. Furthermore, infrastructural developments by others may render our products less competitive or desirable. Failure to adopt and integrate such infrastructure efficiently could increase our operational costs, reduce our competitiveness in terms of price or product quality, and adversely impact our market position. Any inability on our part to effectively respond to such developments or to introduce new products could adversely impact our business operations, financial performance, condition, and cash flows. Furthermore, if our customers defer or cancel orders for our existing services due to the availability of alternative services that are more suitable or preferred, it could have a material adverse effect on our operating results. While we have not faced any such instance in the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure you that such instance will not occur in future.

- 12. *We depend significantly on our design capabilities to conduct precise pre-approval engineering studies for potential orders. We are also dependent upon project execution team in respect of execution of projects. Any inability of these teams to accurately estimate project costs or effectively execute orders could adversely affect our business operations, financial performance, condition, and cash flows.

Our manufacturing processes are supported by in-house design team. Our design capabilities enable us to provide complete solutions in respect of our fabricated services. Our design team also enables us to facilitate improvements and refinements in our processes and designs. As of September 30, 2025, design team comprised 7 employees. Our products are designed, engineered and fabricated by us in accordance with our customers’ requirements. Inability of our design team to meet the requirements of our customers may lead to cancellation, delay in finalising the designs may lead to cancellation of orders or postponement of payments. Further, inability of our design team to accurately estimate the cost of the project, would have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. There is no assurance that we will be able to match the efficiency of our competitors or we would not be required to continuously upgrade our software tools to be competitive. Also, there is no assurance that our competitors will not be able to increase the designing efficiency of their products by using latest technology and offer attractive prices to the customers, without affecting their margins. If we fail to match the competition or fail to offer attractive prices to customers, we may loss our market to competition. In addition to above, we are also dependent upon project execution team. Our project execution team enables our Company to execute the projects as per specific requirements of customers. If employees from this team leave us to join our competitors, it could negatively impact our business. While we have not faced any such instances during the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure you that such instances will not occur in future. Occurrence of any such event may adversely impact our business and results of operations.

13. Our business is dependent on the growth of the real estate, and infrastructure activities. If the growth in these industries is slow or stagnant, it could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our profitability and future growth are correlated with and dependent upon the growth of real estate and infrastructure industries in India. Further, the growth of our business is subject to a number of key challenges, including:

- (i) vulnerability to fluctuations in raw material prices;
- (ii) design limitations;
- (iii) dominance of Reinforced Cement Concrete (RCC) structures; and
- (iv) limited knowledge and lack of skilled manpower.

If the fabrication industry fails to sustain or increase its adoption or remains stagnant, including in particular by infrastructure and industrial sectors, our business may be adversely affected. If the demand for aluminium or glass windows, doors, curtain walls, cladding, and glazing systems develops more slowly than expected, or if the demand decreases, there can be no assurance that our past performance will continue at a comparable scale in the future and our business, prospects, financial condition and operating results would be harmed. If any of the aforementioned risks were to materialize, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

14. We are subject to applicable quality standards and performance requirements set by our customers. Any failure on our part to meet these standards or requirements may result in the cancellation of existing and future orders. Such events could adversely impact our business operations, financial performance, and cash flows.

We are bound by various requirements encompassing design, production, testing, safety, raw materials, packaging etc. as specified by our customers. While we strive to meet these standards, we cannot assure of meeting all such technical specifications and quality standards imposed by our customers, at all times. Failure to do so may disrupt supply and result in penalties under certain customer contracts, which mandate strong process controls and adherence to specified quality benchmarks.

Our business depends on our design, manufacturing, and installation of a wide range of aluminium/glass products and on successfully executing our contracts and delivering the pre build structures to our customers. The fabrication of the aluminium and glass products is carried out in our manufacturing facilities under stringent quality control. An error in designing such products or manufacturing inconsistencies, could result in execution failure. A serious execution failure could result in a range of adverse outcomes including severe quality concerns in the end use projects, industrial accidents or similar systemic issues and could have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, financial position, cash flows, and results of operations. Negative publicity associated with any malfunctions could have an adverse effect on our business and reputation. Any partial or complete failure of our products, or any major disruption on account of such failure, could impede our ability to provide services to our clients. This could in turn require considerable resources in rectifying the defects and could adversely affect the demand for our products. Additionally, any defects in our products or failure to meet quality standards could result in the cancellation of existing customer orders. In some cases, this may also lead to additional costs in the form of product liability, potentially harming our reputation and negatively impacting our business, operational results, financial condition, and cash flows. Our services encompass design, engineering, manufacturing, and on-site project management for the installation and erection of these structures. We may not be able to provide services to the satisfaction of our customers. If a customer finds our services to be deficient, we will have to rectify such defects at our own costs. Further, the customers may decide to retain our realisation against invoicing to them. While we have not faced any such instances during the six months period ended September 30, 2025 and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure you that such instances will not occur in future. Occurrence of any such event may adversely impact our business and results of operations.

We cannot guarantee that we will consistently meet the terms, specifications, or quality standards required by our customers in the future. Any such defaults may lead to the cancellation of current or future orders, product recalls, liquidated damages, which could adversely affect our Company's business, operational results, financial condition, cash flows, and future prospects.

15. We have experienced negative cash flows in the last three financial years. Any negative cash flows in the future would adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If we are not able to generate sufficient cash flow, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations. We experienced negative cash flows in the following periods as indicated in the table below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	Half year ended September 30, 2025	Year ended March 31, 2025	Year ended March 31, 2024	Year ended March 31, 2023
Net cash used/ generated from operating activities	176.83	288.74	145.92	(206.57)
Net cash used/ generated from investing activities	(272.59)	(1,962.21)	(674.36)	(1,709.86)
Net cash used/ generated from financing activities	93.63	1,684.22	520.88	1,914.42
Net increase/ (decrease) in cash and cash equivalent	(2.13)	10.75	(7.55)	(2.00)

There can be no assurance that our net cash flows shall be positive in the future. Any negative cash flows in the future over extended periods, or significant negative cash flows in the short term, could materially impact our ability to operate our business and implement our growth plans. As a result, our cash flows, business, future financial performance and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. For further details, see “Restated Financial information” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on pages 234 and 278, respectively of this Prospectus.

16. We generate our major portion of sales from our operations in certain geographical regions. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in these regions could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

We generate major sales from our customers situated at select geographical regions. Such geographical concentration of our business in these regions heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic and demographic changes in these regions which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations.

The table sets forth below revenue earned by our Company by offering services in various states as a percentage of our revenue from operations during the period indicated:

(₹ in lakhs)

[#] as a percentage of Revenue from Operations from the Restated Financial information.

Existing and potential competitors to our businesses in these states may increase their focus on these states. The concentration of our operations heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic, political, demographic and other changes, which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. While we strive to geographically diversify our service portfolio and reduce our concentration risk, we cannot assure you that adverse developments associated with the region will not impact on our business. If we are unable to mitigate the concentration risk, we may not be able to develop our business as planned and our business, financial condition and results of operation could be adversely affected.

This concentration of business subjects us to various risks, including but not limited to:

- (i) vulnerability to change in laws, policies and regulations of the political and economic environment;
- (ii) perception by our potential customers that we are a regional company which hampers us from competing for large and complex projects at the national level; and
- (iii) limitation on our ability to implement the strategy to cluster projects in the states where we intend to conduct business.

Further, any significant interruption to our operations directly or indirectly as a result of any severe weather or other natural disasters could materially and severely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our inability to expand into areas outside our present geographical regions may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. While such instances have not materially occurred in the past three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however future occurrence of any such instances could impact our earnings, financial condition and results of operation.

17. Our Company requires significant amounts of working capital and significant portion of our working capital is consumed in trade receivables and inventories. Our inability to meet our working capital requirements including failure to realize receivables and inventories may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and overall business.

Our business requires significant working capital, such as to finance the purchase of raw materials, consumables, stores and payments for operating expenses before we receive payment from our customers. In addition, the actual amount of our future capital requirements may differ from estimates as a result of, among other factors, cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, economic conditions, additional market developments and new opportunities in the industry. A significant portion of our working capital is consumed in trade receivables and inventories.

Summary of our working capital position during the period indicated is given below:

As certified by Shah & Patel, Chartered Accountants, Statutory and Peer Review Auditor by way of their certificate dated December 05, 2025.

Our working capital requirements may increase if the payment terms in purchase orders received include reduced advance payments or longer payment schedules, or if there is delayed realization from our customers. These factors may result in an increase in the amount of our receivables. Continued increase in our working capital requirements may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Our inability to maintain sufficient cash flows, realize existing inventories & trade receivables, maintain credit facility and other sources of fund, in a timely manner, or at all, to meet the increasing requirement of working capital may have significant adverse effect on our financial condition and result of our operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue – Funding of working capital requirements of the Company” beginning on page 115 of this Prospectus.

18. We may not be able to collect receivables due from our customers, in a timely manner, or at all, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our scope of work and payment terms are typically governed by the purchase orders executed with our customers. As per our business model, we typically supply our products directly to our customers after receiving a certain amount as advance payment. In the event, a customer terminates the order, or delays or defaults the payments due to us, we shall not be able to recover the amount or resources invested in an order thereby affecting our cash flow, results of operations and financial condition. There have not been any material instances in the past, wherein our customers have delayed or defaulted in making payments due to us. The table below sets forth details relating to our trade receivables as of the dates indicated below and allowances for expected credit losses during the periods indicated below, and as a percentage of our revenue from operations as per restated financial statement during the periods indicated below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	September 30, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Trade Receivables	1,149.80	1,319.22	450.26	295.36
% of Total revenue	43.66%	31.33%	16.87%	13.10%
Trade Receivable Days	79	114	62	48

As of September 30, 2025, March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, ₹ 158.37 lakhs, ₹ 82.74 lakhs, ₹ 6.93 lakhs and ₹ 4.70 lakhs or 14.11%, 6.27%, 1.54% and 1.59%, respectively, of our total trade receivables, had been outstanding for a period exceeding six months from their respective due dates of payments. The holding level of our trade receivables has increased from 48 days as of March 31, 2023 to 62 days as of March 31, 2024 to 114 days as of March 31, 2025 and 79 days as of September 30, 2025, primarily due to increase in credit period advanced to customers. As a result, we have, and may continue to have, high levels of outstanding receivables.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to collect our receivables on time or at all, which could adversely affect our cash flows, results of operations and financial condition. We may have to initiate arbitration proceedings or legal proceedings against our customers, in order to recover the pending dues, which could adversely affect our relationships with our current or future customers, result in costly litigation, cause delay or stoppage in our projects, divert management’s attention and resources and wastage of time and resources. We may also incur costs in collecting payments from our customers and we may not be able to recover such costs. As per the Restated Financial information, bad debts of our Company pursuant to default in payment by our customers for the six month period ended September 30, 2025 and for the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 were Nil. While such events have not materially occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, occurrence of any such instances in the future could adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

19. We are dependent on third parties for the transportation and timely delivery of our products to customers. Any failure by or loss of a third party transport service provider could result in delays and increased costs, which may adversely affect our business.

We rely on third parties for the transportation services for the timely delivery of our products to our customers. The following table sets forth the transportation costs incurred as a percentage of our total expenses and revenue from operations in the years indicated:

Particulars	Half year ended September 30, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations
Transportation costs	26.65	1.01%	34.53	0.82%	11.15	0.42%	16.07	0.71%
Total	26.55	1.01%	34.53	0.82%	11.15	0.42%	16.07	0.71%

We engage third-party logistic service providers to provide support our transportation requirements. In the event that these third party logistic service providers are unable to provide services for our operations for reasons which are beyond our control and we are unable to secure alternate transport arrangements in a timely manner and at an acceptable cost, or at all, our business, cash flows, financial condition, results of operations and reputation may be adversely affected. In order to mitigate risk relating to dependence on transportation providers, we generally maintain alternative service providers, to ensure business continuity and timely execution of orders. While, the aforementioned events, have not materially occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however occurrence of any such events, may have a material impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

20. We conduct our business in a highly-regulated industry and environment. Our business is dependent on approvals from relevant regulatory and health authorities. Any delay or failure to obtain or renew such required regulatory approvals, registrations or any change in the regulatory environment in relation to marketing our products in regulated markets may significantly impact our business and strategy affecting our overall profitability and may impose significant compliance burdens on us.

We require certain statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations and approvals to operate our business, some of which our Company has either received, applied for or is in the process of application. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain these registrations and approvals including approvals in relations to our operations in a timely manner or at all.

Even after we have obtained the required licenses, permits and approvals, our operations are subject to continued review and the governing regulations which may change. As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company has obtained necessary approvals for the existing operating unit at Rajoda, Gujarat (Plot No.2). Further, in respect of the proposed expansion, we shall make necessary applications for setting up a plant at Rajoda, Ahmedabad (Plot No.1) for manufacturing of aluminium & glass glazing solutions for façade work. For further details, please see “Objects of the Issue – Funding capital expenditure to set up assembly & glass glazing line at Rajoda, Ahmedabad for façade work” on page 107 of this Prospectus. We cannot assure you that our Company will be able to receive such approvals in a timely manner or at all.

Even after we have obtained the required licenses, permits and approvals, our operations are subject to continued review and the governing regulations which may change. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain or comply with all necessary licenses, permits and approvals required for our Manufacturing Facility in a timely manner to allow for the uninterrupted manufacturing operations. Furthermore, the government approvals and licenses, including environmental approvals are subject to numerous conditions, some of which are onerous and require us to incur substantial expenditure, specifically with respect to compliance with environmental laws. We cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us would not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. If we fail to comply with all applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business or their implementation change, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties and suffer a disruption in our operations, any of which could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. There have not been any instances wherein fines and penalties were imposed on our Company on account of any failure to comply with statutory regulations. Any failure to renew the approvals that have expired or apply for and obtain the required approvals, licenses, registrations or permits, or any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits that have been or may be issued to us, may adversely affect our operations.

21. We may not be able to prevent others from unauthorised use of our intellectual property and may in the future become subject to patent, trademark and/or other intellectual property infringement claims.

We rely on our registered trademarks to establish and protect our rights in our intellectual property. We are registered a trademark for protecting our logo . For further details see “Our Business – Intellectual Property” on page 183 of this Prospectus. An intellectual property registration granted to us may not be sufficient to protect our intellectual property rights. We may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks. Further, our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate and may lead to erosion of our business value and our operations could be adversely affected. Further, if we do not maintain our brand identity, which is an important factor that differentiates us from our competitors, we may not be able to maintain our competitive edge. If we are unable to compete successfully, we could lose our customers, which would negatively affect our financial performance and profitability.

Further, the defence of intellectual property suits and related legal and administrative proceedings can be both costly and time-consuming and may significantly divert the efforts and resources of our technical and management personnel. We may not achieve a favourable outcome in any such litigation. While we have not experienced any instances of infringement of intellectual property or related litigation in the past three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, there is no assurance that such instances will not occur in the future and if any claim is adversely determined against us in any of such potential litigation or proceedings, we could be subject to significant liability to third parties. We could further be subject to injunctions prohibiting the production or sale of our products. Protracted litigation could also result in our existing or potential customers deferring or limiting their purchase or use of our products until resolution of such litigation. Regardless of their merits, such claims could materially and adversely affect our relationships with current or future customers, result in costly litigation, delay or disrupt supply of products, divert management’s attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities, or require us to cease certain activities.

22. We have issued Equity Shares during the last one year at a price that may be below the Issue Price.

During the last one year we have issued Equity Shares at a price that may be lower than the Issue Price:

Date of Allotment	Number of Equity Shares	Face Value per Equity Share (₹)	Issue Price per Equity Share (₹)	Nature of Consideration (Cash/ Other than Cash)	Nature of allotment
May 2, 2025	73,21,875	10	Nil	Other than cash	Bonus issue in the ratio of eleven (11) equity shares for existing ten (10) equity share

For further details, please refer to the chapters “Capital Structure” beginning on page 88 of this Prospectus.

23. Our inability to manage our growth or to successfully implement our growth strategy could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our Revenue from Operations increased at a CAGR of 57.77% from ₹ 2,669.02 lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 4,210.85 lakhs in Fiscal 2025.

For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, our Revenue from Operations was ₹ 2,633.30 lakhs. Our principal growth strategy is continuous expansion of our business by increasing our product portfolio and geographic footprint. While, we have experienced growth in our manufacturing and business operations, we cannot assure you that we will be able to sustain the past growth in our revenue or implement our growth strategy successfully, or that we will be able to expand further or diversify our operations effectively.

Our inability to execute our growth strategies in a timely manner or within budget estimates or our inability to meet the expectations of our customers and other stakeholders, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our future prospects will depend on our ability to grow our business and operations. The development of such future business could be affected by many external factors or strategies in respect of fabrication industry, prevailing interest rates and price of raw materials. Further, in order to manage our growth effectively, we must implement, upgrade and improve our operational systems, procedures and internal controls on a timely basis. If we fail to implement these systems, procedures and controls on a timely basis, or if there are weaknesses in our internal controls that would result in inconsistent internal standard operating procedures, we may not be able to meet our customers' needs, hire and retain new employees or operate our business effectively. Failure to manage growth effectively could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

24. We depend on our senior management and other personnel with technical expertise, and if we are unable to recruit and retain qualified and skilled personnel, our business and our ability to operate or grow our business may be adversely affected.

Our future performance would depend on the continued service of our Senior Management Personnel, Key Managerial Personnel, persons with technical expertise, and the loss of any senior employee and the inability to find an adequate replacement may impair our relationship with key customers and our level of technical expertise, which may adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. For details in relation to the changes in the Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management of our Company during the preceding three years, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Management - Changes in the Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in last three years” on page 222 of this Prospectus. While there has been no instance in the preceding three Fiscals and the six-months period ended September 30, 2025 where the resignation of any Senior Management Personnel or Key Managerial Personnel had an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial conditions, there is no assurance that such instance will not arise in the future. Set forth below are details of our employees by function as of the dates indicated, and attrition rate for the periods indicated:

Particulars	As of and for the Fiscal 2025	As of and for the Fiscal 2024	As of and for the Fiscal 2023
Number of permanent employees	72	46	22
Attrition Rate (%)	38%	30%	23%

For the period ended September 30, 2025, we have Ninety (90) employees. Our future success, amongst other factors, will depend upon our ability to continue to attract, train and retain qualified personnel, particularly engineers and other associates with critical expertise, know-how and skills that are capable of helping us develop sustainable and technologically advanced fabrication products and support our key customers. We may therefore need to increase compensation and other benefits in order to attract and retain personnel in the future, which may adversely affect our business, financial conditions, cash flows and results of operations.

25. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel have interests in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel may be deemed to be interested in our Company, in addition to the regular remuneration or benefits, reimbursements of expenses, Equity Shares held by them or their relatives, their dividend or bonus entitlement, benefits arising from their directorship in our Company. Our Promoters, Director and Key Managerial Personnel may also be interested to the extent of any transaction entered into by our Company with any other company or firm in which they are directors or partners. For further details please refer to the paragraph titled — “Material Properties” in the chapter titled — “Our Business”, the paragraphs titled — “Interest of Directors” in the chapter titled — “Our Management”, the paragraphs titled — “Interest of our Promoters” in the chapter titled — “Our Promoter and Promoter Group”, “Financial Indebtedness” and “Financial Information - Restated Financial Information” on pages 181, 209, 224, 271 and 234, respectively of this Prospectus.

There can be no assurance that our Promoters, Directors, Key Management Personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoters and members of our Promoter Group will continue to exercise significant control over our Company, including being able to control the composition of our Board of Directors and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders.

26. We do not own certain premises used by our Company. Disruption of our rights as licensee/ lessee or termination of the agreements with our licensors/ lessors would adversely impact our manufacturing operations and, consequently, our business.

As on the date of this Prospectus, certain premises have been taken on lease by our Company from related parties or third parties. The details of our leasehold properties, as of date of this Prospectus have been disclosed in the chapter titled “Our Business” on page 157 of this Prospectus.

We expect any future offices or manufacturing units which we open in the future to be on leased property. As a result, our Company may incur higher expenses for leasing spaces which could lead to lower margins in our business in the future. While we do not believe that the increase in expenses due to lease payments will significantly affect our business operations in the future, we cannot assure you that our profit margins will not be affected by such increased expenses in the future. As our leases expire, we may fail to negotiate renewals, either on commercially acceptable terms or at all, which could cause us to pay increased occupancy costs or to close manufacturing unit, offices or storage spaces, in desirable locations or to shift them, which may not necessarily yield best results. While, the long-term leases are renewable and extendable in nature, however in the event for unforeseen reasons such lease agreements are not renewed, we may be required to vacate the premises on the expiry of the lease period. While, the aforementioned instances have not materially occurred in the preceding three Financial Years and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however, occurrence of any such instances could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

Further, in most of the leases we cannot terminate the lease agreement, unless we provide the owners with a written notice for the same. Most of the lease agreements entitle the lessor to terminate the agreement with cause or on specific breach of the terms and conditions. In order to mitigate the risk relating to abrupt termination, our lease arrangements typically require parties to serve a notice period for terminating the lease agreement. While, instances of abrupt termination have not occurred in the past, however, we cannot assure you that such instances would not occur in the future, and if they do, we cannot assure you that we shall be able to arrange for alternative properties within the same location, in a timely and cost effective manner or at all. In the event, we are required to vacate our properties, our business operations may come to a standstill, which may have an adverse impact on our business operations, financial conditions and results of operations.

27. Any variation in the utilization of the Net Issue Proceeds shall be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior approval of the shareholders of our Company.

We propose to utilize the Net Issue Proceeds for (i) funding capital expenditure to set up plant at Rajoda, Ahmedabad for manufacturing of aluminium & glass glazing solutions for facade work; (ii) funding of working capital requirements; and (iii) general corporate purposes. For further details, see the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 107 of this Prospectus. The proposed utilization is based on current business plans, management estimates, prevailing market conditions, vendor quotations, and other commercial and technical factors, and has not been appraised by any bank, financial institution, or independent party. These estimates may be inaccurate, and we may require additional funds to fully implement the proposed objectives. Moreover, unforeseen changes in external conditions, costs, financial situation, or business strategies may require us to vary the use of the Net Issue Proceeds.

Any delay in implementation may lead to additional costs, adversely impacting our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. As per the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI ICDR Regulations, any variation in the utilization of Net Issue Proceeds would require shareholder approval via a special resolution. If such approval is not obtained in a timely manner, or at all, it could negatively affect our operations. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Object of the Issue” on page 107 of this Prospectus. As a result, even if variation in deployment of unutilized Net Issue Proceeds is in the interest of our Company, our ability to do so may be restricted, thereby limiting our flexibility to respond to changing business or financial conditions, and adversely affecting our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

28. Our Promoters have extended personal guarantees with respect to loan facilities availed by our Company. Further, Promoters, have provided their property as collateral security for loan facilities availed by our Company. Revocation of any or all of these personal or corporate guarantees or withdrawal of such property may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our Promoters, Rupesh Pravinbhai Shah, Pinky Rupesh Shah and Hrishikesh Rupesh Shah have provided guarantees for the loans availed by our Company from various lenders. Further, Rupesh Pravinbhai Shah, Pinky Rupesh Shah and Hrishikesh Rupesh Shah have provided their personal property, as collateral security for loan facilities availed by our Company. 32. Our operations are labour intensive and our manufacturing operations may be subject to unionization, work stoppages or increased labour costs, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our manufacturing activities are labour intensive and expose us to the risk of various labour related issues. Whilst we have not faced any strike by our workforce, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to work stoppages, strikes, lockouts or other types of conflicts with our employees or contract workers in the future. The success of our operations depends on availability of labour and maintaining a good relationship with our workforce. As of September 30, 2025, we employed about 90 permanent employees. We do not have any trade union registered under the Trade Unions Act, 1926. In the past three years and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, we have not experienced any labour dispute. We do not have any formal policy for redressal of labour disputes, Shortage of skilled/ unskilled personnel or work stoppages caused by disagreements with employees could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. We may also have to incur additional expenses to train and retain skilled labour. We are also subject to a number of stringent labour laws that protect the interests of workers, including legislation that imposes financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. There can be no assurance that we will not experience labour unrest in the future, which may delay or disrupt our operations. India has stringent labour legislation that protects the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution and employee removal and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. We are also subject to laws and regulations governing relationships with employees in such areas as minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and terminating of employees and work permits. Non-compliance with any such laws may lead to imposition of fines and penalties and initiation of actions by regulatory authorities, which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details, see “Financial information - Restated Financial information – Annexure: XXXVIII- (ii)- Transactions carried out with related parties referred to in (i) above, in ordinary course of business” beginning on page 234 of this Prospectus.

All our related party transactions have been conducted on an arm’s length basis, we cannot assure you that we may not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. The related party transactions undertaken by our Company are in compliance with applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and all other applicable laws. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or taken together, will not have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition, including because of potential conflicts of interest or otherwise. In addition, our business and growth prospects may decline if we cannot benefit from our relationships with them in the future.

34. Our operations are subject to environmental and health and safety laws and other government regulations which could result in increased liabilities and increased capital expenditures.

We are subject to environmental, health and safety and other regulatory and/ or statutory requirements in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Our manufacturing processes and products are subject to stringent quality, environmental and occupational health and safety standards. We are subject to various national, state, municipal and local laws and regulations concerning environmental protection in India. In India, these include the Factories Act, 1948, Payment of Wages Act, 1936, etc. A failure by us to comply with the relevant labour regulations, could lead to enforced shutdowns and other sanctions imposed by the relevant authorities, as well as the withholding or delay in receipt of regulatory approvals for our new products. We may be involved in future litigation or other proceedings or be held liable in any litigation or proceedings including in relation to labour, safety, health and environmental matters, the costs of which may be significant. Environmental laws and regulations in India are becoming more stringent and the scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted with any certainty. In case of any change in environmental or pollution regulations, we may be required to invest in, among other things, environmental monitoring, pollution control equipment and emissions management. While, the aforementioned events, have not materially occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however occurrence of any such events, may have a material impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As a consequence of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, future environmental and regulatory related expenditures may vary substantially from those currently anticipated. A risk of environmental liability is inherent in our manufacturing activities, and we are subject to numerous environmental laws and regulations in the countries in which we operate. We have availed a public liability insurance policy, however we cannot assure you that any penalties or actions taken against us, will be adequately covered under such policy. Our costs of complying with current and future environmental laws and other regulations will be covered not adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows.

In addition, we could incur substantial costs, our products could be restricted from entering certain markets and we could face other sanctions, if we were to violate or become liable under environmental laws or if our products become non-compliant with applicable regulations. Our potential exposure includes fines and civil or criminal sanctions, third-party property damage or personal injury claims and clean-up costs. The amount and timing of costs under environmental laws are difficult to predict. While, such events have not occurred in the past three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, occurrence of any such events could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

35. We operate in a competitive organised and unorganised industry with low barriers to entry and may be unable to compete with a range of unorganized players.

In the dynamic landscape of the fabrication business, one of the formidable challenges arises from competition in the unorganized sector. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business - Competition” on page 181 of this Prospectus. Further, while we have an expanding portfolio of products, our competitors may have the advantage of focusing on concentrated products. Further, we compete against established players also, which may have greater access to financial, technical and marketing resources and expertise available to them than us in the products in which we compete against them.

Further, industry consolidation may affect competition by creating larger, more homogeneous and potentially stronger competitors in the markets in which we compete. Our competitors may further affect our business by entering into exclusive arrangements with our existing or potential clients. There can be no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully against such competitors or that we will not lose our key core employees, associates or clients to such competitors. Additionally, our ability to compete also depends in part on factors outside our control, such as the availability of skilled resources, pricing pressures in the staffing industry and the extent of our competitors' responsiveness to their client's needs. Our continued success depends on our ability to compete effectively against our existing and future competitors. With the potential entry of new competitors, given the low entry barriers in the industry where we operate, our ability to retain our existing clients and to attract new clients is critical to our continued success. As a result, there can be no assurance that we will not encounter increased competition in the future nor can there be any assurance that we will, in light of competitive pressures, be able to effectively compete with our competition in the various product and service segments we operate in, whether on the basis of pricing, quality or range of products or otherwise, which could have material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

36. Fraud or misconduct by our employees could adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft or damage to inventory in transit and prior to or during godown stocking. The business may also encounter some inventory loss on account of employee theft, vendor fraud and general administrative error. Employee's misconduct could also involve inter alia misappropriation of funds, cheating our customers, which could result in regulatory sanctions and serious reputational or financial harm. It is not always possible to deter fraud or misconduct by employees and the precautions we take and the systems we have put in place to prevent and deter such activities may not be effective in all cases. In the past three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, there have not been any material instances of fraud, cheating and misappropriation. There can be no assurance that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, security lapse, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Additionally, losses due to theft, fire, breakage or damage caused by other casualties, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

37. A downgrade in our credit rating could adversely affect our ability to raise capital in the future.

As on date of this Prospectus, our Company has not obtained any credit ratings in relation to its debt obligations. The interest rates of certain of our borrowings as well as the enhancement and sanction of any future borrowings may be significantly dependent on the credit ratings obtained by us. A downgrade of the credit ratings obtained by us in the future, could lead to greater risk with respect to refinancing our debt and would likely increase our cost of borrowing and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future prospects.

38. Information relating to our annual installed capacity, annual average available capacity and the historical capacity utilization of our Manufacturing Facility included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity utilization may vary.

The information relating to the annual installed capacity, average annual available capacity and capacity utilization of our Manufacturing Facility included in this Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by the independent chartered engineer in the calculation of our capacity. These assumptions and estimates include standard capacity calculation practice in the Indian façade & fenestration industry and capacity of other ancillary equipment installed at the relevant manufacturing facility. Assumptions and estimates taken into account for measuring installed capacities and the annual average available capacities include 300 working days in a year, at single shifts per day operating for 8 hours a day. Actual production levels and capacity utilization rates may therefore vary significantly from the annual installed and annual average available installed capacity of our Manufacturing Facility. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on our capacity information or historical capacity utilization information for our existing facility included in this Prospectus. For information regarding capacity of our Manufacturing Facility, see "Our Business – Capacity and Capacity Utilization" on page 172 of this Prospectus.

- 39. We are dependent on information technology systems in carrying out our business activities and it forms an integral part of our business. Further, if we are unable to adapt to technological changes and successfully implement new technologies or if we face failure of our information technology systems, we may not be able to compete effectively which may result in higher costs and would adversely affect our business and results of operations.

We are dependent on information technology system in connection with carrying out our business activities and such systems form an integral part of our business. Any failure of our information technology systems could result in business interruptions, including the loss of our customers, loss of reputation and weakening of our competitive position, and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, our information technology systems, specifically our SAP software may be vulnerable to computer viruses, piracy, hacking or similar disruptive problems. Computer viruses or problems caused by third parties could lead to disruptions in our business activities. Fixing such problems caused by computer viruses or security breaches may require interruptions, delays or temporary suspension of our business activities, which could adversely affect our operations. While, there have not been any instances of cyberattack or breach of our systems in the preceding three Financial Years and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, occurrence of such events may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

- 40. Our success depends upon our ability to attract, develop and retain trained manpower while also maintaining low labour costs.

Our customers expect a high quality standard of our products. To meet the needs and expectations of our customers, we must attract, train and retain a number of qualified skilled employees, while maintaining low employee costs. In case of any disputes with the employees in connection with tasks performed by them in the course of their employment, including in relation to the collection of payments from customers may have an adverse impact on the business operations and financial collections.

As of September 30, 2025, we have a total of 90 employees and place significant emphasis on their overall welfare and well-being. For details, see 'Our Business – Employees' on page 180 of this Prospectus. However, there can be no assurance that there will not be any future disruptions in our operations due to any disputes with our employees or that such disputes will not adversely affect our business and results of operations.

We will need to continue to recruit, train and retain a greater number of employees, including skilled and unskilled labour, at various levels. Our ability to maintain low labour costs is subject to numerous external factors, including prevailing wage rates, as well as the impact of legislation or regulations governing labour relations and minimum wages. An inability to provide wages and/or benefits that are competitive within the markets in which we operate could adversely affect our ability to retain and attract qualified personnel, which in turn may affect our business, prospects and financial condition. Further, in the event of a labour dispute, protracted negotiations and strike action may impair our ability to carry on our day-to-day operations, which could materially and adversely affect our business, future financial performance and results of operations. While, the aforementioned events, have not materially occurred in the preceding three Fiscals and the six month period ended September 30, 2025, however occurrence of any such events, may have a material impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

- 41. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The table below shows the total amount of our insurance coverage and its percentage contribution to our total assets in the Fiscal 2025 and September 30, 2025:

(₹ in Lakhs)
Particulars	March 31, 2025	September 30, 2025
Amount of insurance coverage (in ₹ lakhs)	4,480.40	4,480.40
Times of insurance coverage to total assets (Inventories, Property, Plant & Equipment excluding land, Capital WIP and Intangibles)	0.95 times	0.79 times

While we maintain adequate insurance policies, they may not always provide full coverage or be enforceable in all circumstances, which may expose the Company to partial liabilities. An employee Compensation Insurance Policy is also in place at the Company. Details of the insurance maintained by us have been provided below:

Policy Number	Policy Start Date	Policy End Date	Insurance Provider	Assets Covered	Sum Insured (₹)
D209009005	June 29, 2025	June 28, 2026	Go Digit General Insurance Co. Ltd.	Building, Plant & Machinery, Furniture & Fixtures & Other Equipment	26,06,40,000.00

Total					44,80,40,000

As certified by Shah & Patel, Chartered Accountants, Statutory and Peer Review Auditor by way of their certificate dated December 01, 2025.

Notwithstanding the insurance coverage that we carry, we may not be fully insured against certain types of risks. There are many events, other than the ones covered in the insurance policies specified above, that could significantly impact our operations, or expose us to third-party liabilities, for which we may not be adequately insured. To the extent that we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance or exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected. Any damage suffered by us in excess of such limited coverage amounts, or in respect of uninsured events, not covered by such insurance policies will have to be borne by us.

Our policies are subject to standard limitations, including with respect to the maximum amount that can be claimed. Therefore, our insurance policies might not necessarily cover all losses incurred by us and we cannot provide any assurance that we will not incur losses or suffer claims beyond the limits of, or outside the relevant coverage of, our insurance policies. Further, several of our insurance policies exclude the insurer's liability in relation to loss or damage to goods due to moisture or change in temperature, among others. Thus, any loss or damage caused on account of such reasons would be excluded from our insurance cover, which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

42. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group have significant control over the Company and have the ability to direct our business and affairs; their interests may conflict with your interests as a shareholder.

Upon completion of this Issue, our Promoters and members of our Promoter Group will collectively hold 72.49 % of the Equity share capital of our Company. As a result, our Promoters will have the ability to exercise significant influence over all matters requiring shareholders' approval. Accordingly, our Promoters will continue to retain significant control, including being able to control the composition of our Board of Directors, determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders, undertaking sale of all or substantially all of our assets, timing and distribution of dividends and termination of appointment of our officers, and our other shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. There can be no assurance that our Promoters will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interests of our Company. Further, such control could delay, defer or prevent a change in control of our Company, impede a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving our Company, or discourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our Company even if it is in our Company's best interest. The interests of our Promoters could conflict with the interests of our other equity shareholders, and our Promoters could make decisions that materially and adversely affect your investment in the Equity Shares.

43. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters could be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Promoters' average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Issue Price as may be decided by the Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager. The details of the average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters, as at the date of the RHP is set out below:

Sr. No.	Name	Number of Equity Shares held as on the date of this Prospectus	Average cost of acquisition per Equity Share (in ₹)*
Promoters
1.	Rupesh Pravinbhai Shah	1,12,87,487	4.76
2.	Pinky Rupesh Shah	23,62,500	4.76
3.	Hrshikesh Rupesh Shah	3,28,128	152.38

As certified by Shah & Patel, Chartered Accountants, Statutory and Peer Review Auditor by way of their certificate dated December 01, 2025.

For more details regarding weighted average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters and build-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, see “Capital Structure” beginning on page 88 of this Prospectus.

44. The shortage or non-availability of power may adversely affect our business, result of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

We require power for our Manufacturing Facility. The following table sets forth our power expenses in the years indicated:

Particulars	September 30, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations	(₹ in lakhs)	% of revenue from operations
Power expenses	19.52	0.74%	32.39	0.77%	11.55	0.43%	5.63	0.25%

Our Manufacturing Facility depends on an adequate and continuous supply of electrical power. We primarily rely on local power authorities for procuring power and also maintain diesel generator sets as a backup to ensure continuity of operations in case of outages. There have been no major instances of power disruption at our facility in the last three years. For further details, see “Our Business – Utilities” on page 173 of this Prospectus.

While our power expenses constitute a small proportion of our revenues, there can be no assurance that electricity supplied to our Manufacturing Facility will always be sufficient to meet our requirements or that it will be available at a reasonable cost. Any increase in electricity tariffs, temporary shortages, or interruptions in supply could marginally impact our operations. Although not expected to be significant, any prolonged disruption could affect our business and results of operations.

44. Our future fund requirements, in the form of further issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the Shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any further issue of Equity Shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing Shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing Shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt or preference shares, then it may substantially increase our fixed interest/dividend burden and decrease our cash flows, thus adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

45. In addition to our existing indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of business. We cannot assure that we would be able to service our existing and/or additional indebtedness.

As on September 30, 2025, our Company’s total fund based indebtedness is ₹ 4,104.34 Lakhs. In addition to the indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of our business. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain further loans at favourable terms. Increased borrowings, if any, may adversely affect our debt-equity ratio and our ability to borrow at competitive rates.

In addition, we cannot assure you that the budgeting of our working capital requirements for a particular year will be accurate. There may be situations where we may under-budget our working capital requirements, which may lead to delays in arranging additional working capital requirements, loss of reputation, levy of liquidated damages and can cause an adverse effect on our cash flows.

Any failure to service our indebtedness or otherwise perform our obligations under our financing agreements entered with our lenders or which may be entered into by our Company, could trigger cross default provisions, penalties, acceleration of repayment of amounts due under such facilities which may cause an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details of our indebtedness, please refer to the chapter titled — “Financial Indebtedness” on page 271 of this Prospectus.

46. Our inability to meet our obligations, including financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. If we are unable to raise additional capital on favourable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations and financial condition could adversely affected.

As of September 30, 2025, our non-current borrowings were ₹ 2,655.39 lakhs while our current borrowings were ₹ 1,448.95 lakhs. Our existing operations and execution of our business strategy may require substantial capital resources and we may incur additional debt to finance these requirements in the future. However, we may be unable to obtain sufficient financing on terms favourable to us, or at all. If interest rates increase it will be more difficult to obtain credit. As a result, our development activities may have to be curtailed or eliminated and our financial performance and our ability to continue operations may be adversely affected.

We have entered into agreements for our borrowings with certain lenders. These borrowings include secured fund based and non-fund based facilities. These agreements include restrictive covenants which mandate certain restrictions in terms of our business operations such as change in capital structure, formulation of any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, declaring dividends, further expansion of business, granting loans to directors, repaying unsecured loans from third parties, undertake guarantee obligations on behalf of any other borrower, which require our Company to obtain prior approval of the lenders for any of the above activities. Further, some of our financing arrangements include covenants to maintain our total outside liabilities and total net worth up to a certain limit and certain other liquidity ratios. It may be possible for a lender to assert that we have not complied with all applicable terms under our existing financing documents. Further we cannot assure that we will have adequate funds at all times to repay these credit facilities and may also be subject to demands for the payment of penal interest. Defaults under one or more of our Company’s financing agreements may limit our flexibility in operating our business, which could have an adverse effect on our cash flows, business, results of operations and financial condition.

We will continue to incur significant expenditure in maintaining and growing our existing infrastructure. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient capital for our current operations, any future expansion plans that we may have and our ability to complete such expansion plans. Our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner. Any unfavourable change to terms of borrowings may adversely affect our cash flows, results of operations and financial conditions. If we decide to meet our capital requirements through debt financing, we may be subject to certain restrictive covenants. If we are unable to raise adequate capital in a timely manner and on acceptable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows could be adversely affected.

47. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

Our ability to pay dividends in future will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. Our business is working capital intensive and we are required to obtain consents from certain of our lenders prior to the declaration of dividend as per the terms of the agreements executed with them. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and our future dividend policy will depend on our capital requirements and financing arrangements in respect of our operations, financial condition and results of operations. Although our Company has declared dividends in the past, however there can be no assurance that our Company will declare dividends in the future also. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Dividend Policy” and the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” on pages 233 and 271 respectively, of this Prospectus.

48. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our businesses and reputation could be adversely affected.

We manage our internal compliance by monitoring and evaluating internal controls and taking reasonable steps to maintain appropriate procedures for relevant statutory and regulatory compliances. As risks evolve and develop, internal controls must be reviewed on an ongoing basis. Maintaining internal controls requires human diligence and is therefore subject to lapses in judgment and failures that result from human error. Any such errors can affect the accuracy of our financial reporting, resulting in a loss of investor confidence and a decline in the price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all, which may have an adverse effect on our business operations and financial condition.

49. Our financial performance may be adversely affected if we are not successful in forecasting customer demands, managing our inventory levels.

We need to maintain sufficient inventory levels to meet customer expectations at all times. Accumulating excess inventory could increase our inventory costs, and a failure to have adequate inventory in stock to fulfil customer orders could result in inability to meet customer demand or loss of customers. The table below sets forth our inventory, closing inventory and inventory turnover ratio as at, or for the periods, indicated:

Particulars	As at September 30, 2025	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Closing Raw Materials (in ₹ lakhs)	1,671.96	813.81	333.85	299.00
Raw Material turnover ratio	1.20	3.59	4.92	4.84
Closing WIP (in ₹ lakhs)	832.71	740.67	224.54	17.91
WIP turnover ratio	1.37	3.30	7.16	84.00

Note:

Raw Material turnover ratio is calculated as purchases divided by closing raw material inventory

WIP turnover ratio is calculated as cost of raw materials consumed divided by closing WIP inventory

If we are unable to accurately predict sourcing levels or customer trends or if our expectations about customer demands and needs are inaccurate, we may have to take unanticipated markdowns or impairment charges to dispose of the excess or obsolete inventory, which can adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Furthermore, we may be required to maintain high inventory levels if we anticipate increases in customer demand for our products, which in turn would require a significant amount of working capital. Our inability to finance our working capital needs, or secure other financing when needed, on acceptable commercial terms or at all, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

50. Certain unsecured loans have been availed by us from Promoter and Managing Director Mr. Rupesh Pravinbhai Shah, which is repayable on demand, could adversely affect our cash flows, liquidity position, and ability to finance operations and business growth in the event of such repayment demands.

As of September 30, 2025, we had availed unsecured loan of ₹ 360.05 Lakhs from Mr. Rupesh Shah and ₹ 32.04 Lakhs from Mr. Hrishikesh Shah. Any failure to service such indebtedness or otherwise perform any obligations under such financing agreements may lead to acceleration of payments under such credit facilities, which may adversely affect our Company.

51. Our overall margins may fluctuate as a result of the product manufactured by us.

Our overall margins may fluctuate depending on the product manufactured. For example, the gross margin of any given product could depend on the total volume manufactured, complexity of manufacturing processes, technology deployed, and other factors. As a result, a change in product mix may decrease the gross margins and operating margins of our Company, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our ability to maintain our profitability depends on our ability to optimize the product mix to support high-margin products and products with consistent long-term demand and the demand and supply balance of our products in the principal and target markets.

Furthermore, our different lines of business present different levels of profitability and opportunity for growth. If we fail to increase or maintain the proportion of certain products that are profitable in our portfolio this may lead to a reduction in our profitability. If we are not able to attract a sufficient market share of products in growing sectors we may also not be able to continue to grow our business which may lead to a loss of our market position.

- 52. *We intend to utilise the Net Issue Proceeds for funding our capital expenditure requirements and we are yet to place entire orders for such capital expenditure requirements. There is no assurance that we would be able to source such capital expenditure requirements in a timely manner or at commercially acceptable prices, which could adversely affect our expansion plans.

We propose to utilize ₹ 1,829.80 Lakhs of our Net Issue Proceeds towards financing the capital expenditure to set up assembly & glass glazing line at Rajoda, Ahmedabad for façade work. For further information, see “Objects of the Issue” on page 107 of this Prospectus. We have not entered into any definitive agreements with any of the vendors, and have relied on the quotations received from vendors. Further, such total estimated cost and related fund requirements have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency. While we have obtained the quotations from various vendors in relation to such capital expenditure, most of these quotations are valid for a certain period of time and may be subject to revisions, and other commercial and technical factors. As of date of this Prospectus, we are yet to place entire orders worth ₹ 1,829.80 lakhs in relation to the construction of the assembling and glass glazing line including set up of Solar PV Power Plant. We cannot assure you that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such quotations, that there will not be cost escalations and that we would be able to procure such equipment in a timely manner, or that we will complete our expansion works within the estimated timelines, and if not, obtain extensions for the quotations at reasonable cost to us, if at all. There is no assurance that we would be able to source such upgradation in a timely manner or at commercially acceptable prices, which could adversely affect our expansion plans and consequently, our business and results of operations.

- 53. *We are heavily dependent on machinery for our operations and we have not entered into any technical support service agreements for the maintenance and smooth functioning of our machineries.

Our manufacturing facility is heavily dependent on plant and machinery. They require periodic maintenance checks and technical support in an event of technical breakdown or malfunctioning. Any significant malfunction or breakdown of our machineries may entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations.

Our Company has not entered into any technical support service agreements for our machineries, which are repaired. Any failure to quickly redress any technical issue may increase our downtime which may affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, while we believe that we maintain necessary supplies of spare parts and maintenance related equipment, if we are unable to procure the necessary spare parts in a timely manner, or if we are unable to repair the malfunctioning machinery promptly, our manufacturing operations may be hampered, which could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

- 54. *We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this RHP.

We have not independently verified data from the industry and related data contained in this RHP and although we believe the sources mentioned in the report to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industry in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

- 55. *The requirements of being a listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a listed Company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the listing agreements with the Stock Exchanges and compliances of SEBI (LODR) Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited half yearly results and limited review reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies which may adversely affect the financial position of the Company.

As a listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions to support the existence of effective disclosure controls and procedures, internal control over financial reporting and additional compliance requirements under the Companies Act, 2013. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management oversight will be required. As a result, management's attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate listed company experience and technical accounting knowledge and we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely manner.

56. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Although we currently intend that the Equity Shares will remain listed on the Stock Exchanges, there is no guarantee of the continued listing of the Equity Shares. Failure to maintain our listing on the Stock Exchanges or other securities markets could adversely affect the market value of the Equity Shares.

The Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book building process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. You may not be able to resell your Equity Shares at a price that is attractive to you.

57. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the SME Platform of BSE in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuance of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the SME Platform of BSE due to delay in submission of required documents/ completion of formalities/compliance with required laws by the issuer. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

58. There is no existing market for our Equity Shares, and we do not know if one will develop to provide you with adequate liquidity. Further, an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop and the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile.

An active public trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop or, if it develops, may not be maintained after the Issue. Our Company, in consultation with the lead manager, will determine the Issue Price. The Issue Price may be higher than the trading price of our Equity Shares following this Issue. As a result, investors may not be able to sell their Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price or at the time that they would like to sell. The trading price of the Equity Shares after the Issue may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to factors such as, variations in our results of operations, market conditions specific to the sectors in which we operate economic conditions of India and volatility of the securities markets elsewhere in the world.

59. The price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile after the Issue.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Indian stock exchanges may fluctuate after this Issue as a result of several factors, including, volatility in the Indian and global securities market; our operations and performance; performance of our competitors and the perception in the market about investments in the our industry; adverse media reports on us or the industry; changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts; significant developments in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies; and significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations. There can be no assurance that the prices at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the prices at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequently.

60. You will not be able to sell immediately on the Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the SME Platform of BSE Limited. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. Upon receipt of final approval from the Stock Exchanges, trading in the Equity Shares is to commence within six (6) working days of the date of closure of the Issue or such other time as may be prescribed by SEBI. However, SEBI pursuant to its circular bearing reference number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 has reduced the time taken for listing of specified securities after the closure of public issue to 3 working days (T+3 days) as against the present requirement of 6 working days (T+6 days); 'T' being issue closing date. Our Company shall close this Issue in accordance with the timeline provided under the aforementioned circular.

We cannot assure that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time period prescribed by law. Further, there can be no assurance that the Equity Shares to be Allotted pursuant to this Issue will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all.

61. There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Our listed Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchanges, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchanges are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

62. The price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, which could result in substantial losses for investors acquiring the Equity Shares in the Issue.

The market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile and could fluctuate significantly and rapidly in response to, among others, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- volatility in the Indian and global securities market or in the value of the Rupee relative to the U.S. Dollar, the Euro and other foreign currencies;
- our profitability and performance;
- changes in financial analysts' estimates of our performance or recommendations;
- perceptions about our future performance or the performance of Indian companies in general;
- performance of our competitors and the perception in the market about investments in the textile sector;
- adverse media reports about us or the Indian textile sector ;
- significant developments in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies;
- significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations;
- economic developments in India and in other countries; and
- any other political or economic factors.

These fluctuations may be exaggerated if the trading volume of the Equity Shares is low. Volatility in the price of the Equity Shares may be unrelated or disproportionate to our results of operations. It may be difficult to assess our performance against either domestic or international benchmarks.

Indian stock exchanges, including the Stock Exchanges, have experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities and problems such as temporary exchange closures, broker defaults, settlement delays and strikes by brokers. The governing bodies of Indian stock exchanges have also, from time to time, imposed restrictions on trading in certain securities, limitations on price movements and margin requirements. Further, disputes have occurred between listed companies, stock exchanges and other regulatory bodies, which in some cases may have had a negative effect on market sentiment. If such or similar problems were to continue or recur, they could affect the market price and liquidity of the securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

63. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity-linked securities by our Company may dilute your shareholding and any sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or members of our Promoter Group may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by our Company may dilute your shareholding in our Company; adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through further issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our Promoter and Promoter Group, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that our Promoter and Promoter Group will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

64. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of Equity Shares by our Promoter or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sale of Equity Shares might occur.

65. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

66. Inability to Achieve Optimal Utilization of Recently Expanded Capacity Could Adversely Impact Our Revenues, Margins and Overall Financial Performance

Inability to Achieve Optimal Utilization of Recently Expanded Capacity Could Adversely Impact Our Revenues, Margins and Overall Financial Performance. Our capacity utilization decreased from 95.55% in Fiscal 2024 to 48.49% in Fiscal 2025 and 34.75% as of September 30, 2025, primarily due to a substantial increase in our installed capacity from 6,00,000 square feet to 15,00,000 square feet during Fiscal 2025. While our production volume increased in absolute terms from 5,73,314 sq. ft. in Fiscal 2024 to 7,27,433 sq. ft. in Fiscal 2025 and 5,21,228 sq. ft. as of September 30, 2025, the utilization percentage declined as a result of the higher installed capacity. There can be no assurance that we will be able to achieve optimal utilization of the newly expanded capacity within the expected timeframe. Continued underutilization of our expanded facilities may result in inefficient absorption of fixed costs, lower operating margins, and an adverse impact on return on capital employed. If we fail to generate sufficient demand to match the expanded capacity or face delays in ramping up production due to operational, market-related, or regulatory challenges, our revenue growth, profitability, and overall financial performance may be adversely affected.

67. Changes in government regulations or their implementation could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business and industry are regulated by different laws, rules and regulations framed by the Central and State Government. These regulations can be amended/ changed on a short notice at the discretion of the Government. If we fail to comply with all applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business or their implementation change adversely, we may incur increased costs or be subject to penalties, which could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

68. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares within 12 months in an Indian company are classified as short-term capital gains and generally taxable. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange that are held for more than 12 months is considered as long-term capital gains and is taxable at 10%, in excess of Rs. 1,00,000. Any long-term gain realized on the sale of equity shares, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, is also subject to tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares are exempt from taxation in India where an exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable to pay tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain on the sale of equity shares.

69. Natural disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Global pandemics or epidemics, or fear of spread of contagious diseases, such as Ebola or Nipah virus disease, coronavirus disease 2019 ("COVID-19"), Middle East respiratory syndrome, severe acute respiratory syndrome, H1N1 flu, H7N9 flu, and avian flu could disrupt our business operations, reduce or restrict our supply of materials and services, incur significant costs to protect our employees and facilities, or result in regional or global economic distress, which may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Actual or threatened war, terrorist activities, political unrest, civil strife, and other geopolitical uncertainty could have a similar adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Any one or more of these events may impede our production and delivery efforts and adversely affect our sales results, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Any future global spread of the COVID-19 pandemic may result in global economic distress, and the extent to which it may affect our results of operations will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted. We cannot assure you that the COVID-19 pandemic can be eliminated or contained in the near future, or at all, or a similar outbreak will not occur again. If the COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting disruption to our business were to extend over a prolonged period, it could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We are also vulnerable to natural disasters, including but not limited to hurricanes, earthquakes, tsunamis, fires and other calamities. We cannot assure you that any backup systems will be adequate to protect us from the effects of such unexpected events. Any of the foregoing events may give rise to interruptions, damage to our property, delays in production, breakdowns, system failures, technology platform failures, or internet failures, which could cause the loss or corruption of data or malfunctions of software or hardware as well as adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

70. We cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of facts and other statistics with respect to India, the Indian economy and industry in which we operate contained in this Prospectus.

While facts and other statistics in the relating to India, the Indian economy, and the industry in which we operate has been based on various web site data and IBEF that we believe are reliable, we cannot guarantee the quality or reliability of such materials. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of such information, industry facts and other statistics have not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore we make no representation as to their accuracy or completeness. These facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the section titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page 136 of this Prospectus Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

71. Changing regulations in India could lead to new compliance requirements that are uncertain.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change. The Government of India may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect EVs or vehicles in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements. New compliance requirements could increase our costs or otherwise adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Furthermore, the manner in which new requirements will be enforced or interpreted can lead to uncertainty in our operations and could adversely affect our operations. Any changes to such laws, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

Additionally, the Government of India has introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019 (“Wages Code”); (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020 (“Social Security Code”); (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (Collectively, the “Labour Codes”) which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. The Government of India has deferred the effective date of implementation of the respective Labour Codes, and they shall come into force from such dates as may be notified. Different dates may also be appointed for the coming into force of different provisions of the Labour Codes. While the rules for implementation under these codes have not been notified in its entirety, as an immediate consequence, the coming into force of these codes could increase the financial burden on our Company, which may adversely impact our profitability. We are yet to determine the impact of all or some such laws on our business and operations which may restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. For example, the Social Security Code aims to provide uniformity in providing social security benefits to the employees which was earlier segregated under different acts and had different applicability and coverage. Furthermore, the Wages Code limits the amounts that may be excluded from being accounted toward employment benefits (such as gratuity and maternity benefits) to a maximum of 50% of the wages payable to employees. The implementation of such laws has the ability to increase our employee and labour costs, thereby adversely impacting our results of operations, cash flows, business and financial performance.

Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

Additionally, if we are affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of such laws and regulations or any related proceedings, or are required to bear any costs in order to comply with such provisions or to defend such proceedings, our business and financial performance may be adversely affected.

72. Terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition, and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India’s economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks in India, other incidents such as those in US, and other countries and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade the global equity markets as well generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company’s business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

73. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers and our profits might decline.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and the same may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase our rates to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the GoI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

74. Adverse geopolitical conditions such as an increased tension between India and its neighbouring countries, Russia-Ukraine conflict, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and its neighbouring countries, resulting in any military conflict in the region could adversely affect our business and operations. Such events may lead to countries including the Government of India imposing restrictions on the import or export of products or components, among others, and affect our ability to procure raw materials required for our business operations. We could also be affected by the introduction of or increase in the levy of import tariffs in India, or changes in trade agreements between countries. For instance, the government of India has imposed additional tariffs in the nature of countervailing duty and anti-dumping duty on a number of items imported from China. Any such measure or reciprocal duties imposed on Indian products by China or other countries may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Further, prolonged Russia-Ukraine conflict that is currently impacting, inter alia, global trade, prices of oil and gas could have an inflationary impact on the Indian economy.

75. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

76. Pursuant to listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure ("ASM") and Graded Surveillance Measures ("GSM") by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors.

SEBI and the Stock Exchanges have introduced various pre-emptive surveillance measures in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interests of investors, including ASM and GSM. ASM and GSM are imposed on securities of companies based on various objective criteria such as significant variations in price and volume, concentration of certain client accounts as a percentage of combined trading volume, average delivery, securities which witness abnormal price rise not commensurate with financial health and fundamentals such as earnings, book value, fixed assets, net worth, price / earnings multiple, market capitalization etc.

Upon listing, the trading of our Equity Shares would be subject to differing market conditions as well as other factors which may result in high volatility in price, low trading volumes, and a large concentration of client accounts as a percentage of combined trading volume of our Equity Shares. The occurrence of any of the abovementioned factors or other circumstances may trigger any of the parameters prescribed by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing our securities under the GSM and/or ASM framework or any other surveillance measures, which could result in significant restrictions on trading of our Equity Shares being imposed by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges. These restrictions may include requiring higher margin requirements, requirement of settlement on a trade for trade basis without netting off, limiting trading frequency, reduction of applicable price band, requirement of settlement on gross basis or freezing of price on upper side of trading, as well as mentioning of our Equity Shares on the surveillance dashboards of the Stock Exchanges. The imposition of these restrictions and curbs on trading may have an adverse effect on market price, trading and liquidity of our Equity Shares and on the reputation and conditions of our Company.

FUNDING OF WORKING CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS OF THE COMPANY

The funds proposed to be raised towards working capital will be utilised to support the Company's day-to-day operational requirements arising from its expanded scale of business. Specifically, the proceeds will be applied towards:

Procurement of raw materials and consumables to ensure uninterrupted production. Financing higher inventory levels required in line with the increased installed capacity and larger order book. Funding trade receivables, given the extended credit period being offered to customers. Meeting routine operating expenses, including logistics, subcontracting, and other project execution-related costs.

Company's working capital requirements primarily relate to procurement of raw materials and consumables, financing of higher inventory levels, funding of trade receivables, and meeting routine operating expenses. These requirements have grown in line with our increased production capacity, larger order book, and entry into new markets.

Being engaged in the business of design, manufacturing, and installation of a wide range of aluminium products—including windows, doors, curtain walls, cladding, and glazing systems—our operations require timely procurement of aluminium profiles, glass, sealants, fasteners, and other consumables to ensure uninterrupted production and project execution. With our products being tailored to the specific needs of builders, contractors, architects, and institutions, we often manage multiple customized orders simultaneously, necessitating the maintenance of adequate stock of materials and components.

As part of our expansion plans, we are increasing our installed capacity through the proposed addition of approximately 13,714 square meters adjoining our existing manufacturing facility at Village Rajoda, Taluka Bavla, Ahmedabad, Gujarat. The expansion will enable us to enhance our production capabilities, cater to new geographical markets, and strengthen our ability to execute projects within stipulated timelines. Consequently, our working capital intensity is expected to increase due to:

1. Procurement of raw materials and consumables to ensure smooth operations across expanded capacity and to meet project-specific technical requirements.
2. Financing of higher inventory levels, as the increased installed capacity and a growing order pipeline require us to maintain sufficient stock of aluminium profiles, glass panels, and other key materials for timely project delivery.
3. Funding of trade receivables, especially due to the extended credit period being offered to customers, as part of our business development strategy to build client relationships and expand market presence.
4. Meeting routine operating expenses, including logistics, fabrication support, and project site execution costs, which have proportionately increased with the rising project volume and geographic reach.

Company has consistently delivered reliable and customized architectural systems for commercial, residential, industrial, and institutional projects, including hospitals.

The deployment of Net Proceeds towards working capital will help the Company:

- Maintain uninterrupted production and timely project execution;
- Improve procurement efficiency and raw material cost management;
- Strengthen customer relationships through improved credit and collection systems; and
- Enhance operational efficiency and overall financial performance.

The investment in working capital will therefore be critical to sustaining growth, optimizing production cycles, and achieving our long-term strategic objectives.

The outstanding order book amount of our company is ₹ 10,307.07 Lakhs as on September 30, 2025.

The Company's business is working capital intensive, and we fund the majority of our working capital requirements in the ordinary course of our business from our internal accruals, financing from various banks and financial institutions and unsecured loans. The Company anticipates a further increase in its working capital requirements. The Company has achieved sales of approximately ₹2,550 lakhs (₹25.5 crores) up to September 2025.

Our Company proposes to utilize ₹ 1,900.00 lakhs of the Net Issue Proceeds in Financial Year 2026 and in Financial Year 2027 towards our Company's working capital requirements. The balance portion of our Company's working capital requirement shall be met from the working capital facilities availed and internal accruals.

Justification for “Holding Period” levels derived from our Restated Financial information

Head	Particulars
Raw Materials*	Raw Material Inventory days is calculated by dividing purchase cost of raw materials by closing raw materials multiplied by the number of days in a year. Our raw material inventory days were 75, 74 and 102 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. We have executed more number of projects in FY 2025 as compared to FY 2023 & 2024. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, raw material inventory days stood at 150 days, primarily on account of (i) execution of a higher number of projects in the first half of FY 2026 requiring advance stocking, and (ii) bulk procurement of raw materials to secure better pricing and ensure uninterrupted execution. Such higher inventory for the stub period reflects timing of procurement rather than a structural increase in inventory cycle. Going forward, we expect to maintain raw material inventory levels of 110 days in FY 2026 and 115 days in FY 2027, based on improved procurement planning, phased deliveries from suppliers, and enhanced project scheduling.
Work In Progress*	Work In Progress Inventory days is calculated by dividing cost of raw materials consumed by closing work in progress multiplied by the number of days in a year. Our work in progress days were 4, 51 and 111 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. We have executed more number of projects in FY 2025 as compared to FY 2023 & 2024. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, WIP days stood at 131 days, primarily due to a higher number of large-size façade and glazing projects at mid-execution stage, which typically carry longer WIP cycles. WIP levels as of the stub period reflect project execution stage and are not indicative of the sustainable level across full fiscal years. We expect WIP days to stabilize at 115 days in FY 2026 and 120 days in FY 2027, as we complete more projects and align material issuance with project progression to avoid cost overruns.
Trade Receivables*	Trade Receivable days is calculated by dividing revenue from operations by closing trade receivables multiplied by the number of days in a year. The Trade Receivables days of the Company were 48,62 and 114 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. As at September 30, 2025, trade receivable days were 79 days, reflecting faster collections in the first half of FY 2026 due to milestone-based billing and focused follow-up with customers. While the stub period demonstrates improved collection efficiency, our receivable cycle may fluctuate depending on project handovers and client billing schedules. We expect our trade receivable days to be maintained at 120 days in FY 2026 and 125 days in FY 2027, considering the mix of ongoing and upcoming large-scale projects and typical industry credit terms. To improve overall working capital efficiency, the Company is implementing a debtor management policy, which includes: - Tightening credit checks during onboarding, - Streamlining internal collection processes with dedicated follow-up mechanisms.
Short Term loans & Advances days*	Short Term Loans & Advances days is calculated by dividing cost of goods sold by closing short term loans & advances multiplied by the number of days in a year. The short term loans & advances days of the Company were 30, 23 and 28 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, the days were 23,

	consistent with historical levels. The Company expects its short term loans & advances days to be around 30 days in FY 2026 and 2027. Short term loans and advances mainly include Advance to creditors, other advances and Loans & Advances to Employee. We expect the short-term loans & advances to be around 30 days in FY 2026 & 2027 due to a combination of: - an expanded project pipeline requiring larger mobilisation and vendor prepayments; - advance payments to suppliers to lock in prices and mitigate raw-material price volatility
Trade Payables*	Trade Payable days is calculated by dividing cost of goods sold by closing trade payables multiplied by the number of days in a year. The trade payable days of the Company were 83, 114 and 156 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, trade payable days increased to 205 days, largely due to extended credit terms negotiated with key suppliers during a period of high raw material procurement and staggered payment schedules aligned to project milestones. This temporary increase reflects supplier support during peak material procurement and is not expected to continue across the full year. Accordingly, we estimate trade payable days to normalize to 125 days in FY 2026 and 115 days in FY 2027 based on standard credit terms and planned procurement discipline. We estimate Trade payable days to reduce in coming years to ensure better negotiable pricing terms and faster delivery of projects to ensure efficient completion of projects.
Other Current Liabilities days*	Other Current Liabilities days is calculated by dividing revenue from operations by closing other current liabilities multiplied by the number of days in a year. The other current liabilities days of the Company were 52, 9 and 70 days for the year ended March 31, 2023, March 31, 2024 & March 31, 2025 respectively. For the stub period ended September 30, 2025, these stood at 33 days, mainly due to (i) timing of customer advances, (ii) lower statutory liabilities outstanding at period end, and (iii) staggered retention money obligations. The Company expects its other current liabilities days to come down further to 50 days in FY 2026 and 2027. Other current liabilities mainly include Advance from customers, statutory liabilities, amount payable to employees and retention money payable. Going forward, we have estimated other current liabilities days to moderate to around 50 days, on account of: - stabilisation of customer advances in line with expected billing schedules; - systematic clearance of statutory and employee-related payables within due dates; - retention money obligations being phased in line with contractual milestones; and more consistent advance billing terms across projects, leading to reduced volatility in balances.

Assuming 365 days in a year for FY 23, 24, 25, 26 & 27 & assuming 180 days for half year ended September 2025.*

Apart from above there are other working capital requirements such as Cash and Bank Balance, other current assets and short-term provisions. Details of which are given below:

Cash and Bank Balance: Cash and bank balances include balances in current account with scheduled banks and cash In hand.

Other Current Assets: Other current assets mainly include security deposits, balance with revenue authorities, prepaid expenses, retention money receivable and interest receivable. Other Current Assets are expected to remain broadly in line with previous years in the upcoming financial years.

Short-term provisions: Short-term provisions mainly include Provision for income tax, provision of gratuity expenses, provision for interest accrued but not due and provision of other expenses. Short-term provisions are projected considering past outstanding amounts and expected business requirements.

1. INDIAN MACRO ECONOMY AN OVERVIEW:

The Indian economy is on a strong wicket and stable footing, demonstrating resilience in the face of geopolitical challenges. The Indian economy has consolidated its post-Covid recovery with policymakers – fiscal and monetary – ensuring economic and financial stability. Nonetheless, change is the only constant for a country with high growth aspirations. For the recovery to be sustained, there has to be heavy lifting on the domestic front because the environment has become extraordinarily difficult to reach agreements on key global issues such as trade, investment and climate. High economic growth in FY24 came on the heels of growth rates of 9.7% and 7.0%, respectively, in the previous two financial years. The headline inflation rate is largely under control, although the inflation rate of some specific food items is elevated. The trade deficit was lower in FY24 than in FY23, and the current account deficit for the year is around 0.7% of GDP. In fact, the current account registered a surplus in the last quarter of the financial year. Foreign exchange reserves are ample. Public investment has sustained capital formation in the last several years even as the private sector shed its balance sheet blues and began investing in FY22. Now, it has to receive the baton from the public sector and sustain the investment momentum in the economy. The signs are encouraging. National income data show that non-financial private-sector capital formation, measured in current prices, expanded vigorously in FY22 and FY23 after a decline in FY21. However, investment in machinery and equipment declined for two consecutive years, FY20 and FY21, before rebounding strongly. Early corporate sector data for FY24 suggest that capital formation in the private sector continued to expand but at a slower rate.

Snapshots on key Economic Indicators: -

Foreign Direct Investment: -

Foreign Direct Investment, the subject of much analysis, has held up. RBI data on India’s Balance of Payments shows us that the investment interest of external investors, measured in terms of dollar inflows of new capital, was USD45.8 billion in FY24 compared to USD47.6 billion in FY23. This slight decline is in line with global trends. Reinvestment of earnings remained the same. Repatriation of investment was USD29.3 billion in FY23 and USD44.5 billion in FY24. Many private equity investors took advantage of buoyant equity markets in India and exited profitably. It is a sign of a healthy market environment that offers profitable exits to investors, which will bring newer investments in the years to come. That said, the environment for foreign direct investment to grow in the coming years is not highly favourable for many reasons.

Employment generation:-

It is worth reiterating that job creation happens mainly in the private sector. Second, many (not all) of the issues that influence economic growth, job creation and productivity and the actions to be taken therein are in the domain of state governments. So, in other words, India needs a tripartite compact, more than ever before, to deliver on the higher and rising aspirations of Indians and complete the journey to Viksit Bharat by 2047.

In more than one respect, the action lies with the private sector. In terms of financial performance, the corporate sector has never had it so good. Results of a sample of over 33,000 companies show that, in the three years between FY20 and FY23, the profit before taxes of the Indian corporate sector nearly quadrupled. Further, newspaper headlines told us that the corporate profits-to-GDP ratio rose to a 15-year high in FY24. Business Line reported, “The corporate profit for the Nifty-500 universe was up 30 per cent last fiscal to ₹14.11-lakh crore against ₹10.88 lakh crore in FY23. The nominal GDP grew 9.6 per cent y-o-y to ₹295-lakh crore (₹269-lakh crore)¹”. Hiring and compensation growth hardly kept up with it. But, it is in the interest of the companies to step up hiring and worker compensation.

Between FY19 and FY23, the cumulative growth in private sector non-financial Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) is 52% in current prices. During the same period, the cumulative growth in general government (which includes states) is 64%. The gap does not appear to be too wide.

Private sector GFCF in machinery and equipment and intellectual property products has grown cumulatively by only 35% in the four years to FY23. Meanwhile, its GFCF in ‘Dwellings, other buildings and structures’ has increased by 105%. This is not a healthy mix. Second, the slow pace of investment in M&E and IP Products will delay India’s quest to raise the manufacturing share of GDP, delay the improvement in India’s manufacturing competitiveness, and create only a smaller number of higher-quality formal jobs than otherwise.

Nonetheless, there is a silver lining in the data. In the two years since FY21, GFCF by the private sector has grown faster. General government GFCF rose a cumulative 42% between FY21 and FY23. Non-Financial Private Sector’s overall GFCF increased by 51%; investment in Machinery and Equipment and Intellectual Property Products increased by 38%. So, the growth in these two critical sub-components of Private Sector GFCF is similar to that of the overall GFCF by the General Government. This is a statistic that bears watching. They should continue to invest. To do so, they need demand visibility. That comes from employment and income growth.

Agriculture can be a growth engine:-

The agriculture sector is one area ripe for and in need of such a pan-India dialogue. Agriculture and farmers matter for a nation. Most countries understand that. India is no exception. India subsidises their water, electricity and fertilisers. The former two are provided virtually free. Their incomes are not taxed. The government offers them a minimum support price (MSP) for 23 selected commodities. Monthly cash support is offered to farmers through the PM-KISAN scheme. Indian governments – national and sub-national –write off their loans. So, governments in India spend enough resources to look after the farmers well. Yet, a case can be made that they can be served better with some re-orientation of existing and new policies.

Unleashing small enterprises:-

Another area where policy intentions have yet to manifest in desired outcomes is with respect to small, medium, and large enterprises. Earlier, several products were reserved for small scale industries. That was phased out as it benefitted neither the small-scale industries nor the overall economy. Recent concerted efforts at formalising them are making progress. Progress is relatively slower on access to finance. Buyers and creditors are shedding old mindsets and practices too slowly for these enterprises to feel the effect. However, these enterprises need maximum relief from the compliance burdens they face. Laws, rules and regulations stretch their finances, abilities and bandwidth, perhaps robbing them of the will to grow.

Final words:-

The tripartite compact that this country needs to become a developed nation amidst emerging unprecedented global challenges is for governments to trust and let go, for the private sector to reciprocate the trust with long-term thinking and fair conduct and for the public to take responsibility for their finances and their physical and mental health.

2. AN OVERVIEW ON MACRO ECONOMY PARAMETERS:

GLOBAL ECONOMIC SCENARIO :-

After a year marked by global uncertainties and volatilities, the global economy achieved greater stability in 2023. While uncertainty stemming from adverse geopolitical developments remained elevated, global economic growth was surprisingly robust. As per the World Economic Outlook (WEO), April 2024 of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the global economy registered a growth of 3.2 per cent in 2023, though marginally lower than in 2022 and average for 2011-19 but higher compared to the projection of 2.8 per cent as per the April 2023 WEO5 . The context in which the growth of 3.2 per cent in 2023 has been achieved is markedly different compared to the 2011-19 period. Inflationary pressures have been significantly higher on account of the persistence of core inflation. Global trade moderated due to rising geopolitical tensions, cross-border restrictions and slower growth in advanced economies (AEs). The muted trade growth occurred despite the easing of supply chain pressures. Further, geopolitical developments and monetary policy changes across countries resulted in increased caution among investors, culminating in moderation in foreign direct investment (FDI) flows.

Global economy registers strong growth

All major economies have surpassed pre-pandemic GDP levels:-

Country	Year in which crossed pre pandemic GDP (constant prices, national currency)	Ratio of GDP (constant prices, national currency) in 2023 to corresponding level in 2019
United States	2021	108
China	2020	120
France	2022	102
Germany	2022	101
United Kingdom	2022	102
Japan	2023	101
India	2021	120
Brazil	2021	107

Domestic Economy:-

India's economy carried forward the momentum it built in FY23 into FY24 despite a gamut of global and external challenges. The focus on maintaining macroeconomic stability ensured that these challenges had minimal impact on India's economy. As a result, India's real GDP grew by 8.2 per cent in FY24, posting growth of over 7 per cent for a third consecutive year, driven by stable consumption demand and steadily improving investment demand. On the supply side, gross value added (GVA) at 2011-12 prices grew by 7.2 per cent in FY24, with growth remaining broad-based. Net taxes at constant (2011-12) prices grew by 19.1 per cent in FY24, aided by reasonably strong tax growth, both at the centre and state levels and rationalisation of subsidy expenditure. This led to the difference between GDP and GVA growth in FY24.

The shares of the agriculture, industry and services sector in overall GVA at current prices were 17.7 per cent, 27.6 per cent and 54.7 per cent respectively in FY24. GVA in the agriculture sector continued to grow, albeit at a slower pace. Erratic weather patterns during the year and an uneven spatial distribution of the monsoon in 2023 impacted overall output. This is reflected in the marginal decline in total foodgrain output for FY24 of 0.3 per cent as per the third advanced estimate of foodgrain production released by the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare (MoAFW).

Gross fixed capital formation (GFCF)

Gross fixed capital formation (PFCE)

Within the industrial sector, manufacturing GVA shrugged off a disappointing FY23 and grew by 9.9 per cent in FY24. Manufacturing activities benefitted from reduced input prices while catering to stable domestic demand. The input price advantage was reflected in the subdued growth in the Wholesale Price Index (WPI) inflation, which led to a deflator of (-) 1.7 per cent for the manufacturing sector during FY24. Manufacturers also passed on the reduction in input prices to consumers, reflected in the sustained decline in the core consumer price inflation. The strength of manufacturing is further corroborated by the strong performance of the HSBC India PMI for manufacturing, which consistently remained well above the threshold value of 50, indicating sustained expansion and stability in India's manufacturing sector. Construction activities displayed increased momentum and registered a growth of 9.9 per cent in FY24 due to the infrastructure buildout and buoyant commercial and residential real estate demand.

Various high-frequency indicators reflect the growth in the services sector. Both Goods and Services Tax (GST) collections and the issuance of e-way bills, reflecting wholesale and retail trade, demonstrated double-digit growth in FY24. Financial and professional services have been a major driver of growth post the pandemic. Contact-intensive services—prominently trade, transport, real estate and their ancillary services that were impacted the most during the pandemic have emerged much stronger in the post-pandemic period, embedding greater technology and digital content in them and transforming the nature of the service delivery in India. The proliferation of global capability centres (GCCs) has also imparted resilience to India's services exports, giving further thrust to the sector.

On the demand side, private consumption has been a crucial and steadfast cog in the GDP growth. Private final consumption expenditure (PFCE) grew by 4.0 per cent in real terms in FY24. Urban demand conditions remain strong, as reflected in various urban consumption indicators such as domestic passenger vehicle sales²⁰ and air passenger traffic²¹. It is also reported that rural consumption growth has gradually picked up pace during the quarter ending March 2024.²² As per the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations, two and three-wheeler and passenger vehicle sales also registered an uptick in FY24.

Vehicle sales in rural areas have recovered smartly since the pandemic:-

Greater general government focus on building productive capacities:-

Steadily rising private corporate capex:-

Apart from private corporations, households have also been at the forefront of the capital formation process. The growth in housing sales in cities has been particularly impressive, indicating that urban households are diversifying the deployment of their savings. In 2023, residential real estate sales in India were at their highest since 2013, witnessing a 33 per cent YoY growth, with a total sale of 4.1 lakh units in the top eight cities. As per real estate research firm Proptiger, new supply witnessed an all-time high, with 5.2 lakh units launched in 2023, as against 4.3 lakh units in 2022. The momentum continued in Q1 of 2024, witnessing record breaking sales of 1.2 lakh units, clocking a robust 41 per cent YoY growth. New supply has consistently exceeded one lakh units since Q2 of 2022, underscoring persistent demand-supply dynamics in the housing market.

With cleaner balance sheets and adequate capital buffers, the banking and financial sector is well-positioned to cater to the growing financing needs of investment demand. Credit disbursal by scheduled commercial banks (SCBs) to industrial micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) and services continues to grow in double digits despite a higher base. Similarly, personal loans for housing have surged, corresponding to the increase in housing demand. However, credit offtake by large industries seems to be growing at a lower albeit stable pace. These larger industries seem to be tapping the corporate bond market. Corporate bond issuances in FY24 were up by 70.5 per cent, with private placement remaining the preferred channel for corporates. Outstanding corporate bonds were up by 9.6 per cent (YoY) as of the end of March 2024.

Global trade growth slowed in 2023, leading to a marginal decline in merchandise exports growth. As merchandise imports slowed more than exports and services trade recorded a larger surplus compared to the year before, the drag exerted by net exports on GDP reduced. The subdued contribution of exports was more than counterbalanced by the pick-up in fixed investment, thereby continuing the trend of domestic stimulus seamlessly replacing external stimuli.

Moderation in inflation pressure:-

Despite global supply chain disruptions and adverse weather conditions, domestic inflationary pressures moderated in FY24. After averaging 6.7 per cent in FY23, retail inflation declined to 5.4 per cent in FY24. This has been due to the combination of measures undertaken by the Government and the RBI. The Union Government undertook prompt measures such as open market sales, retailing in specified outlets, timely imports, reduced the prices of Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG) cylinders and implemented a cut in petrol and diesel prices. The RBI raised policy rates by a cumulative 250 bps between May 2022 and February 2023. It also managed liquidity levels efficiently and maintained consistent and coherent communication with market participants. Even as higher policy rates are transmitted through the system, the RBI continues to support growth with adequate liquidity, thereby ensuring that inflation is headed to the target of 4 per cent on a durable basis. The effects of these measures are reflected in the latest data on CPI inflation – headline CPI inflation of 5.1 per cent in June 2024, and core inflation declined to 3.1 per cent. Consequently, India was the only country amongst its peers to traverse a high-growth and low-inflation path in the period FY22 – FY24 (Chart I.53). This is despite the fact that there were pressures on the food inflation front, driven by adverse weather conditions.

Reduction in macro vulnerability

In its pursuit of fiscal consolidation through efficient and prudent fiscal management, the Government continues to stick to the fiscal glide path. The fiscal deficit of the Government is expected to drop to 4.5 per cent of GDP or lower by FY26. This commitment has helped keep the sovereign debt sustainable, thereby keeping sovereign bond yields and spreads in check. All these factors have combined to keep the macroeconomic environment stable and provide a platform for sustainable growth. This is reflected in the downward trajectory of the macroeconomic vulnerability index – an index constructed by combining India's fiscal deficit, CAD and inflation.

The initiatives in the social sector have also translated into rising consumption spending, as evident from the results of the latest Household Consumption Expenditure Survey (HCES) 2022-23. The HCES throws many reassuring findings on inclusive growth in the past decade. The monthly per capita consumption expenditure (MPCE) in 2022-23 increased in real terms in both rural and urban areas over 2011-12. The difference between rural and urban MPCE also declined in percentage terms.

OUTLOOK:-

The Indian economy recovered swiftly from the pandemic, with its real GDP in FY24 being 20 per cent higher than the pre-COVID, FY20 levels. This meant a CAGR of 4.6 per cent from FY20, despite a 5.8 per cent decline in FY21 inflicted by the pandemic. Analysis in this chapter shows that the current GDP level is close to the pre-pandemic trajectory in Q4FY24. During the decade ending FY20, India grew at an average annual rate of 6.6 per cent, more or less reflecting the long-run growth prospects of the economy. This is the background against which we can see the prospects for FY25.

IMF projects the global economy to grow at 3.2 per cent in 2024, with risks being broadly balanced. The average annual global growth was 3.7 per cent during the decade ending FY20. Inflationary pressures have moderated in most economies with declining global commodity prices and easing of supply chain pressures. However, core inflation remains sticky and driven by high service inflation. Many central banks have hinted at the peaking of the interest rate hike cycle. The ECB has already cut the policy rate, while the Fed has hinted at reducing the rate in 2024. If the services inflation across economies moderates faster, that may allow central banks to bring forward the monetary policy easing cycle earlier than currently anticipated. A likely reduction in policy rates by central banks of AEs, especially the Fed, will open the space for central banks of EMEs to follow the lead, bringing down the cost of capital.

On the downside, any escalation of geopolitical conflicts in 2024 may lead to supply dislocations, higher commodity prices, reviving inflationary pressures and stalling monetary policy easing with potential repercussions for capital flows. This can also influence RBI's monetary policy stance. The global trade outlook for 2024 remains positive, with merchandise trade expected to pick up after registering a contraction in volumes in 2023. Conversely, increased fragmentation along geopolitical lines and renewed thrust on protectionism may distort merchandise trade growth, impacting India's external sector. Global financial markets have scaled new heights, with investors betting on global economic expansion. However, any corrections in the elevated financial market valuations may have ramifications for household finances and corporate valuation, negatively impacting growth prospects. Hiring in the information technology sector had slowed down considerably in FY24, and even if hiring does not decline further, it is unlikely to pick up significantly. However, leveraging the initiatives taken by the government and capturing the untapped potential in emerging markets, exports of business, consultancy and IT-enabled services can expand. Despite the core inflation rate being around 3 per cent, the RBI, with one eye on the withdrawal of accommodation and another on the US Fed, has kept interest rates unchanged for quite some time, and the anticipated easing has been delayed.

Domestic growth drivers have supported economic growth in FY24 despite uncertain global economic performance. Improved balance sheets will help the private sector cater to strong investment demand. A note of caution is warranted here. Private capital formation after good growth in the last three years may turn slightly more cautious because of fears of cheaper imports from countries that have excess capacity. While merchandise exports are likely to increase with improving growth prospects in AEs, services exports are also likely to witness a further uptick. A normal rainfall forecast by the India Meteorological Department and the satisfactory spread of the southwest monsoon thus far are likely to improve agriculture sector performance and support the revival of rural demand. However, the monsoon season still has some ways to go. Structural reforms such as the GST and the IBC have also matured and are delivering envisaged results. Considering these factors, the Survey conservatively projects a real GDP growth of 6.5–7 per cent, with risks evenly balanced, cognizant of the fact that the market expectations are on the higher side.

3. AN OVERVIEW OF FAÇADE & FENESTRATION:

Facade is an architectural term which literally translates from French to ‘face’ and usually refers to the building exterior. The market has been driven by the increased focus of consumers towards the external appearance of a building. This includes everything from walls to glazing and cladding. It is essentially an overcoat that is attached to the outside of a property to protect it. Along with adding to the aesthetic appeal, it also acts as an insulator against heat, cold, moisture, and noise, and protects the structure from damage.

However, protection isn’t the only role that the facade plays in architecture. In fact, these important exterior elements serve quite a few functions when it comes to ensuring the overall usability of a building.

Application of Façade & Fenestration:-

Protect against the elements

Arguably the most important purpose of a facade is to protect against the elements, mainly the wind, rain and extreme temperatures. Essentially, it must act as a protective shield against the weather and the damage it might do to both the interior and exterior of the building.

This is why it is vital that facades are made from the right materials, as they have to withstand the weather, avoid corrosion and control the climate indoors. They must be strong, sturdy and durable. They need to be able to last for decades and to ensure the longevity of the building.

Ensuring ventilation

As the facade is made up of lots of different elements, it is able to control the natural airflow of a building. This is crucial for a number of reasons. For example, it must allow enough ventilation to ensure comfort for the occupants whilst clearing the air of dust or unwanted particles to keep it clean.

However, the facade and building envelope must be tight enough that it does not allow draughts in or for warm air to escape. This is important for climate control and energy efficiency within the property.

Making the most of natural light

Glazing is one of the most important parts of a facade, and it’s crucial that this is utilised to make the most of natural light. This is why glass is being used in increasing amounts on building envelopes – that and the fact that it is aesthetically pleasing.

Allowing more natural light into the building through glazing is vital as it reduces the amount of artificial light needed and helps to regulate heating and cooling. This can make the building more energy efficient. Natural light has also proven to boost the mood and comfort levels of all those inhabiting the property.

Increasing acoustic insulation

Another important role of the facade is to stop noise pollution. After all, what good would a building be if you could hear the noise of all the people, traffic and extreme weather conditions outside? Therefore, a good facade must reduce the amount of external noise that can get in but also stop internal noise from going out. This made it a more comforting environment for all inhabitants.

Adding structural support

As a facade is made up of different elements such as glazing, metal framing, cladding, roofing and more, it plays an important role in the overall structure of a building. Again, this is why they must be made from strong, durable materials to reduce the risk of damage to the property.

Although the primary structure will bare most of the weight, elements used in the facade can offer additional support. Other materials may be attached to aspects of the facade to shape the design and boost the structural integrity of the building.

Meaning of Fenestration

In architecture, fenestration refers to the openings in a building's facade, such as doors, skylights, and windows. Functional fenestration considers how doors, windows, and skylights affect a building's practicality. Fenestration in design is concerned with a building's aesthetics. The Functionality of Facade Design

Enhancing Building Performance

The facade plays a crucial role in enhancing the overall performance of a building. By incorporating innovative design elements and materials, architects can improve energy efficiency, ventilation, and natural lighting, thus creating a sustainable built environment.

Sustainable Practices in Facade Design

In recent years, sustainable practices have become integral to facade design. Architects are employing strategies such as green roofs, solar panels, and passive shading systems to minimize environmental impact and reduce energy consumption.

Integration with Building Systems

Modern facade designs seamlessly integrate with building systems, including HVAC, lighting, and security. Using advanced technologies and smart materials, architects can optimize functionality while maintaining aesthetic appeal.

Influence on Architectural Style

The facade design significantly influences the architectural style of a building, reflecting cultural influences, historical context, and contemporary trends. Whether classical, modern, or avant-garde, the facade serves as a canvas for architectural expression.

Utilization of Materials for Aesthetic Appeal

Architects use a diverse range of materials in facade design, including glass, steel, concrete, and natural stone, to achieve desired aesthetic effects. Each material possesses unique properties that contribute to the visual appeal and texture of the facade.

Cultural and Contextual Considerations

Facade designs often incorporate cultural motifs, symbols, and patterns that resonate with the local context and heritage. By honouring cultural traditions and embracing contextual nuances, architects create harmonious and contextually relevant facades.

Exploring the Role of Facade Design:-

Historical Perspectives on Facades

Throughout history, facades have served as expressions of cultural identity, social status, and architectural prowess. From ancient temples to medieval cathedrals, the evolution of facade design reflects humanity's artistic and technological advancements.

Modern Trends and Innovations

In the contemporary architectural landscape, facade design continues to evolve with advancements in materials, technology, and construction techniques. Innovations such as kinetic facades, adaptive shading systems, and parametric design tools are reshaping the possibilities of architectural expression.

Future Directions in Facade Design

Looking ahead, facade design is poised to embrace sustainability, digital fabrication, and interactive technologies. Architects are exploring biomimetic principles, responsive facades, and dynamic building envelopes to create more resilient and adaptable structures.

Key Component:-

Windows and doors have been the oldest and most prominent forms of fenestration components. However, different types of openings have evolved over the last few decades, based on the type and functionality of a building.

Windows:-

Windows are the links to communicate with internal and external spaces and facilitate ventilation, light, and sight. They are also capable of altering the visual aesthetics of the space considering that windows come in different shapes and sizes. They can also become an instrument for reference of scale on the external surfaces to enable assessment of the height and width of the building. At times they are also used as facade modulators based on their size, form, number, placement, and articulation. Their placements in the structure are governed by the internal layout of the space, requirement of light and ventilation. In fact, windows can totally alter the perception of the building, as evident from several monuments built in the ancient times as well as modern structures built recently.

The material used varies from hardwood to aluminium or uPVC. In India, the residential segment has observed a marked shift from the use of hardwood to aluminium and uPVC. This is mainly because of the cost implications in sourcing good quality hardwood in requisite quantities.

Doors:-

Doors are moving structures that provide access to internal spaces. They consist of a panel, with interior and exterior faces, which swings on hinges or slides or spins to permit access. Doors can easily be categorized based on function. While the external doors need to be strong to ensure safety and protection, the internal ones may be slimmer and elegant aimed to add to the ambience and aesthetics of the enclosed space. In high rise residential developments, there are doors for balconies which create a visual link between the external and internal space and becomes an integral part of the structure's elevation. In India, the residential segment has been using flush doors which are factory made. They are pre treated and possess industrially produced door frames and shutters, which gained prominence in mass developments. However, in private and high end homes, use of teak and other forms of high quality hardwood are preferred for door frames, with the shutters being either paneled doors with modern designs or flush doors finished with high end materials.

Vent:-

Ventilation grills, commonly known as vents, are used to introduce ambient air into space thereby controlling the indoor air quality. The pollutants inside are displaced and diluted to provide thermal comfort to the inhabitants.

Skylights:-

A glazed assembly that admits natural light from the roof may be called a skylight or a roof window. Such applications are widely used in industrial, commercial and residential buildings. Real estate developments benefit from such structures and offer a functional solution to provide natural lighting to the indoor spaces and at times may also be openable like a window to permit airflow. Skylights also enhance the building's aesthetics. The direction of placing the skylight has unique functional benefits. If it faces east, the indoor space receives the warmth and light during the morning, while if it faces west, similar benefits are reaped in the afternoon. It is particularly important in buildings facing north to place a skylight in

Curtain walls as sloped glazing systems:-

A curtain wall is the outer covering of a building and is considered to be a non-structural element. Hence, they are light and non-load bearing. However, they can bear the loads due to gravity and wind, which is transferred to the building structure. Since they do not bear any load, they can be made of lightweight material which optimizes cost. Functionally they help to protect the external structure from the outdoor elements and at the same time enhance the structural integrity and aesthetics of the building. The design made it air and water resistant and ensures that the interior of the building remains airtight. The curtain walls are available in three main systems such as face-sealed, water-managed, and pressure-equalized. Face-sealed walls provide perfect sealing between units of the wall and frame. Water-managed systems include moisture drains to prevent the intrusion of water in the building. The pressure-equalized system blocks all forces while keeping the building's interior completely airtight.

Owing to their low weight, they offer an affordable option for protecting the building exteriors and enhancing the aesthetics. It is also capable of resisting the air and water infiltrations, which made the interiors energy efficient. It is a versatile system which protects and offers an energy efficient, and pleasing appearance to the building.

Storefronts:-

Storefronts are the facades of a retail store that are located on the street level of a commercial building. These have large display windows to attract the visual attention of the passers-by towards the merchandise or special offers. In the case of commercial buildings, they are substantially altered keeping the other architectural elements intact. The storefronts have evolved as a concept from being awnings or bay windows in the earlier days to include glass and steel being extensively used in the present. A considerable amount of thought and detailed study is made these days on the design, material and the lighting used in the shopfronts.

Louvers:-

Louvers are a system of cladding on the surface of the buildings which are primarily meant to allow airflow and light while keeping sunshine and moisture at bay. They are usually an arrangement of parallel, horizontal blades, slats, laths, slips of glass, wood or other material designed to regulate airflow and light. In the past, louver systems were often made of wood. However, most modern louvers are now built using materials such as aluminium, metal, glass, copper, stainless steel, among others.

Major stakeholders:-

The concept of structural glazing and glass as a building envelope material was widely accepted in western countries since 1940-50s whereas the concept of curtain walls reached India by mid-80s and early 90s only. The first building in the nation with a curtain wall was constructed in New Delhi in the mid-80s. The curtain wall concept as a building envelope was a modern technology then reserved exclusively for high-end developments. Evolution in construction techniques and materials changed the image of the buildings altogether.

The facade and fenestration industry evolved gradually over the period of time and with an increasing focus on aesthetics, functionality, quality, durability, efficiency, building performance, sustainability, and brand value, multiple stakeholders have emerged, and the industry has grown by leaps and bounds. Major stakeholders of the fenestration industry can be broadly classified into four categories as listed below:

Case Study: -

Examples of iconic buildings with innovative facade and fenestration systems.

Krusha Bhawan, Odisha:-

Krusha Bhawan, designed by Studio Lotus, is a government facility that re-imagines the relationship between the State and its People. It celebrates local context, craftsmanship, and sustainability as a vital part of social infrastructure. The façade consists of a brick-louvered screen expressing itself in the pattern of local weaves, its colors representing the local diversity of the region which acts as a solar shading device.

72 Screens, Jaipur

72 Screens, designed by Sanjay Puri Architects, is a sculptural 6-level office building enveloped in folded plates of perforated screens or Jaali. It reflects the rich Rajasthan heritage designed to cater to the blistering heat of Jaipur. These lightweight screens are made of Glass Fiber Reinforced Concrete, sometimes called GFRC or GRC, an interesting composite having high strength alkali-resistant glass fiber embedded in a cementitious mix.

Hexalace, Mohali

Hexalace, designed by Studio Ardet, is an open-plan commercial building made primarily for leasing purposes. Due to the occurrence of extreme heat, the architects created a 3-inch thick semi-permeable concrete layer with hexagonal cut-out sections, that is used as a shading element. Hexagonal metal frames are horizontally layered on the concrete which doubles up as a balcony fence. The main curtain wall has been recessed to leave pockets of air between the screen and the main building to subsequently reduce heat gain.

Temenos, New Delhi

Temenos, designed by Studio Lotus, is a new-age commercial complex in Delhi's Lajpat Nagar. It is designed to become a 'jewel' in the city-skyline. The façade is inspired by origami-folds, a double-skin of perforated aluminum panels rendered in rich champagne color. The perforations have been carefully calibrated to cut-out solar glare and dampen external noise to create a tranquil indoor user-experience.

Hive House, Surat

Hive House, designed by Openideas Architects, is conceived as an intelligent and sustainable family home. The form of the house is inspired by the profession of the client who is engaged in the production of machinery for the diamond industry. The geometry of the solar-sensor based façade is influenced by hexagonal structural patterns found in nature.

Cybertecture Egg, Mumbai

Cybertecture Egg, designed by James Law Cybertecture International, is a 13-floor office building unlike any other. This parametrically designed building brings together iconic architecture, environmental design, intelligent systems, and new engineering to create an awe-inspiring landmark for the city. An innovative column-less steel diagrid shell structure incorporated with passive solar design to decrease heat gain and lower energy loads cool the building envelope. An elevated garden also moderates temperatures to assist with cooling.

Moving Landscapes, Ahmedabad

Moving Landscapes, designed by Matharoo Associates, is a house built for a successful real-estate developer and his family. With the touch of a button, this house transforms itself from an 'impregnable shell' into a glass pavilion, allowing occupants to vary the amount of light, ventilation, and privacy in their home. Sliding and spinning walls animate the façade of this house. 1'6" mm thick Bidaser stone panels pivot in alternate directions or back and forth in some areas to protect the inner layer of glass and concrete.

4. PRESENT MARKET SCENARIO:

Global Façade Market:-

The global facade market is estimated at $246.96 billion in 2024. The market is expected to reach USD 315.11 billion by 2029, growing at a CAGR of 5% during the forecast period. North America is the fastest-growing market, while the Asia-Pacific region holds the largest market share. India is part of the Asia-Pacific region, which is experiencing significant growth in construction projects, with a focus on external wall beautification and energy efficiency. Rapid urbanization in India is driving demand for facade installations. India, along with Japan, is actively adopting facade greening techniques to reach sustainability targets. The green office concept is promoting facade greening technology in India.

The market is expected to grow at a considerable rate over the forecast period. This growth can be attributed to rising customer spending power, primarily in China, Japan, India, Brazil, and GCC countries, along with the need to provide a secure work environment to employees. Furthermore, the use of metal composite materials offers a durable, harmonious, and modern appearance to the building. Increasing usage of such composite materials to build facades is projected to provide an upthrust to the market over the coming years.

Modernization and urbanization are playing a vital role in the growth of the market. Several factors, including waterproofing, fabrication, durability, and resistance to extreme climate, come to play during the construction of facades. Changing perceptions of consumers and increasing focus on the exterior appearance of a building are anticipated to boost the growth of the market. Rising disposable income is leading to increased investments in renovations, which in turn is estimated to augment the market. Growing investments for the advancement in the residential and commercial construction industry in developed countries such as the U.S. can stoke the growth of the market.

The target market is also characterized by a high level of mergers & acquisitions by the leading players. Companies are strategically joining forces to strengthen their market positions, expand product portfolios, and leverage synergies in technology and expertise. This high level of M&A activity reflects a competitive landscape where firms seek to enhance their capabilities and offer more comprehensive solutions to meet the evolving demands of the architectural and construction sectors.

The facade market is facing increased regulatory scrutiny globally, with a focus on ensuring compliance with safety, environmental, and energy efficiency standards.

Regulatory authorities are placing a heightened emphasis on the fire safety of facade systems, particularly in the aftermath of high-profile incidents. Additionally, environmental regulations are pushing for more sustainable and energy-efficient solutions, impacting the choice of materials and construction practices in facade design. Companies in the facade market are navigating a complex regulatory landscape, adapting their products and processes to meet evolving standards and ensure the safety and sustainability of building exteriors.

Indian Façade Market:-

The Indian facade market was valued at approx. USD 2.2 billion in 2023. The market is projected to reach around USD 4 billion by 2028. This growth projection is supported by the increasing demand for modern and sustainable building solutions. The compound annual growth rate (CAGR) is estimated to be between 8.3% from 2022 to 2028. This significant projected growth rate reflects the rising investments in infrastructure and real estate, alongside technological advancements in building materials and design. Rapid urbanization in India is a major driver, with cities expanding and new urban centers being developed. This leads to a higher demand for residential, commercial, and industrial buildings, which in turn fuels the facade market. Large-scale infrastructure projects, including airports, metro systems, and smart cities, are increasing the need for advanced facade solutions. There is a growing emphasis on sustainable building. The Indian Construction Market is expected to register a CAGR greater than 10% during the forecast period (2022 - 2027). As COVID-19 expanded across the country in April 2020, the face of the Indian construction industry, which was already battling with its practices. Facades play a crucial role in improving a building's energy efficiency by providing insulation, reducing heat gain, and allowing for natural light. Government incentives for green buildings, such as tax benefits and faster project approvals, encourage the adoption of energy-efficient facades. This aligns with India's broader goals of reducing carbon emissions and promoting sustainable development. The architecture and construction industries are also carrying out major R & D operations to develop sustainable and eco-friendly facades that absorb solar energy, creating a new source of energy generation in residential and commercial buildings. These ecofriendly façades are expected to drive the façade market in the coming years as they are seeing increased demand from prospective consumers.

5. GROWTH DRIVERS & CHALLENGES

Growth Drivers:-

The growth of the Indian facade market share is primarily driven by rapid urbanization and a surge in infrastructure development activities within residential, commercial, and industrial sectors. With the increasing need for modern, energy-efficient buildings, facades have become essential in providing thermal insulation, reducing energy consumption and enhancing aesthetic appeal. For instance, in September 2024, VOX India launched Fronto V Black panels, a cutting-edge solution for facades and ceilings. Combining robust durability, weather resistance, and authentic wood aesthetics, these maintenance-free panels offer easy installation and enhanced thermal efficiency, redefining modern architectural design.

Technological advancements in facade materials and systems also play a significant role in market expansion. Innovative solutions like ventilated facades and dynamic glazing are gaining immense popularity, providing improved durability and performance. Additionally, growing awareness of green building certifications and energy-saving regulations is encouraging developers to integrate advanced facade solutions into new projects. For instance, the Confederation of Real Estate Developers Association of India (Credai) collaborated with the Indian Green Building Council (IGBC) to develop 1,000 certified green projects by 2026 and 4,000 by 2030, adopting IGBC Green and Net Zero building ratings.

Key Challenges of the Façade & Fenestration Industry:

Traditionally, the facade and fenestration industry in India relied heavily on the unorganized sector, often working with local fabricators (commonly referred to as "रे" or "fabricators") to construct building facades. However, this approach frequently led to challenges, including a lack of quality control, expertise gaps, cost and time overruns, and inconsistencies in design and execution. These issues underscored the limitations of the unorganized sector, prompting a significant shift towards the organized market. In 2023, the construction and real estate industries in India saw significant advancements, particularly with the evolution of regulatory frameworks and heightened expectations for building safety and performance. The need for high-quality, innovative, and precisely engineered facade solutions has driven this transition, as more developers and builders recognize the value of partnering with organized partners. Moreover, the rapid growth of skyscrapers, commercial spaces, and other modern infrastructure projects has further emphasized the importance of well-designed facades. These structures often serve as the face of the building, playing a crucial role in attracting clients and investors. As a result, the industry has experienced substantial growth in recent years, fueled by the demand for aesthetically pleasing, energy-efficient, and durable façade systems.

In line with this, our commitment to innovation has led to the inclusion of solar facades in our product portfolio, a ground-breaking solution that not only enhances the aesthetic appeal of buildings but also contributes to the green revolution. These solar facades integrate energy efficiency into the building's exterior, aligning with the growing demand for sustainable construction practices. The Indian government, through various initiatives and budgetary allocations, has underscored the importance of infrastructure development and safety standards. For instance, the increased focus on sustainability and energy efficiency in building codes mirrors our own commitment to innovation in facade and fenestration design. Our adherence to stringent standards and practices ensures that every project we undertake not only meets but exceeds industry expectations.

Industry Trend:-

India Facade Market Trends:

Rising Adoption of Energy-Efficient Facades

The Indian facade market is witnessing a significant shift toward energy-efficient solutions due to growing environmental awareness and stricter building regulations. Double-glazed glass, ventilated facades, and dynamic shading systems are becoming preferred choices among developers to reduce energy consumption and enhance thermal performance. The push for green building certifications is further driving the adoption of these technologies. For instance, in September 2024, rat Studio unveiled the Head Field Office in Noida, featuring a parametric facade with Tweening Arches, dynamic vertical fins, energy efficiency, advanced lighting systems, and environmental responsiveness, blending sustainability and modern design into an architectural landmark. In addition, as India progresses toward net-zero energy goals, demand for innovative, sustainable facades is expected to surge, particularly in urban centers with high-density construction.

Integration of Smart Technologies

The integration of smart technologies in facades is an emerging trend in India, driven by the need for intelligent building management systems. Smart facades equipped with sensors and IoT-enabled features offer automated shading, climate control, and energy monitoring capabilities. These advancements not only enhance building functionality but also align with India's growing emphasis on digital transformation in infrastructure. For instance, in June 2023, Design Forum International collaborated with the Government of Odisha to design the Odisha Mining Corporation project, featuring AI-powered kinetic facades, dynamic projections, and flexible spaces, blending corporate, commercial, and recreational functions to showcase Odisha's technological and architectural advancements. The incorporation of AI and machine learning into facade systems is paving the way for adaptive designs that respond to real-time environmental conditions, making buildings more efficient and responsive.

Increased Use of Advanced Materials

- Commercial
- Industrial
- Residential

The commercial sector is the leading end-user segment as per the India facade market forecast, propelled by the rapid development of office spaces, retail outlets, hotels, and shopping malls. Modern commercial buildings increasingly incorporate advanced facade solutions for enhanced aesthetics, energy efficiency, and sustainability. Features such as natural light optimization, thermal insulation, and noise reduction make facades indispensable in creating functional and visually appealing commercial spaces. With urbanization accelerating and demand for high-rise buildings growing, developers are prioritizing innovative facade systems that meet green building standards. This segment's dominance is further reinforced by corporate investments in sustainable infrastructure and urban expansion projects.

- South India
- North India
- West and Central India
- East and North East-India

South India is the leading regional segment as per the India facade market trends, driven by rapid urbanization, industrialization, and extensive construction activities across major cities. The region's robust IT, commercial, and residential infrastructure development fuels demand for innovative and sustainable facade solutions. For instance, in March 2024, Chennai Metro Rail Limited and Tamil Nadu Industrial Development Corporation (TIDCO) announced a ₹688 crore, 27-story, 10 lakh sq. ft. iconic building near Chennai Central Railway Station to accommodate public sector offices, commercial enterprises, and IT companies. Developers increasingly adopt energy-efficient materials, including glass and ventilated facades, to meet rising environmental and aesthetic standards. With expanding high-rise projects and green building certifications gaining traction, South India remains a key contributor to the country's facade market growth.

6. GROWTH PROSPECTS IN REAL ESTATE SECTOR:

Supported by a growing economy, the real estate sector in India has transitioned significantly. India's real estate sector has forward and backward linkages with approximately 250 ancillary industries, and it is one of the highest employment generators after the agriculture sector, accounting for 18% of the total employment. In terms of output, the market size of India's real estate sector is currently estimated at USD 482 bn 5 contributing 7.3% to the total economic output . By 2034, India's real estate sector is expected to expand to USD 1.5 tn contributing 10.5% to the total economic output. Factors such as growing residential demand, increase in need for contemporary office space, expanding hospitality, retail sector etc to cater to the growing consumption needs of the growing population with increased income levels, are adding an impetus to real estate sector in India. Furthermore, expanding e-commerce is catalysing the demand for warehousing and storage facilities in India providing a thrust to the industry. Additionally, in recent years, the growing use of telecommunication services has necessitated the need for data centres or data storage facilities in India. From a government policy perspective, various initiatives such as focus on affordable housing, smart city measures, tax deductions on housing loans etc have enabled investment opportunities in the real estate sector in India.

Trends In India's Residential Market:-

India's residential market has undergone significant changes over the last few decades. From the early 2000s, the residential market has experienced periods of growth and decline owing to various factors such as the global and domestic economic conditions, government policies, with the most recent being the COVID-19 pandemic. Global events such as the 2008-09 GFC along with structural shifts in India's domestic economy due to demonetization, implementation of GST and RERA, and the NBFC crisis, besides the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, were some of the key events which dampened the growth of the housing market in India. Policy interventions like RERA strengthened India's real estate sector, making it more transparent and consumer centric. Currently, buoyed by stronger economic momentum, wealth creation and consumer's aspiration towards home purchase, the residential real estate sector in India is experiencing an upcycle.

Growing demand for luxury housing: Thus far, India has been largely categorised as a low-middle income country. Therefore, the housing demand for most of the last two decades was concentrated in the affordable (under INR 5 mn) and mid segment housing (between INR 5-10 mn). However, in the last few years, there has been a considerable shift in the ticket size of the housing demand, with growing income levels primarily driven by generation of high salaried jobs emerging from the IT/ITeS, BFSI and other service sectors. While the mid-segment housing market continues to dominate the demand, there has been a growing demand for luxury housing (above INR 10 mn). In 2018, across the top 8 cities in India luxury housing comprised 16% of the total sales. In 2023, the share of this segment significantly increased to 34%, a substantial growth of 6 from 16% in 2018. Going forward, factors such as the growing economy, salary growth from the high paying services sector and growth in the numbers of HNIs and UHNIs, will continue to raise demand for luxury housing in India.

Estimating Residential Demand for 2034

India's population is expected to surge to 1.55 bn by 2034 with an estimated 42.5% of the population residing in urban centres. Additionally, there is a scope for the existing rural and small towns to transform into mini-urban towns. The burgeoning urban population will generate the demand for housing in India, especially in the cities. As per our estimates, to accommodate the urban population, urban cities in India will require an addition of 78 mn housing units by between 2024-34. The changing income profiles and the demand for housing will emerge across all the segments. By 2034, a significant share of the population will be concentrated in the lower middle and the upper middle-income categories. Thus, the housing demand will be concentrated in the affordable segment and will gradually inch towards mid segment. Additionally, the share of HNIs and UHNIs households in India which will likely increase from the existing 3% to 9% by 2034 will generate a significant demand for luxury housing in India. In terms of market value, the estimated residential demand has a potential to generate an additional output equivalent of USD 906 bn in the next ten years.

Commercial Real Estate (CRE)

In recent years, India's commercial real estate market has grown stronger with increasing global occupier interest and the rise of small and medium real estate land developers, attracting institutional investments. Over the last few years, government initiatives such as the establishment of special economic zones (SEZs), software technology parks (STP), and export-oriented units (EOU) have significantly supported India's CRE.

Currently, the CRE and primarily the office sector globally is under stress due to the adoption and continuation of remote work post COVID-19 pandemic, dimming the office leasing activities. However, the CRE market in India continues to outperform. In 2023, the top 8 cities in India registered office transaction volume of 60 mn sq ft. Growth in the IT/BPM sectors, influx of global capability centres (GCCs), revival of India facing businesses, rise in flexible and co-working spaces are the key factors enabling transactions in India's office market. While the tech sector driven by the growth in artificial intelligence, data science etc will drive the demand for office space, the GCCs will potentially drive the office market in the next decade. By 2030, there will be an estimated 2400 GCCs across India as India emerges as global technology and services hub. Assuming a similar pace of growth, the number of GCCs in India may scale up to 2880 by 2034.

Supported by the aforementioned growth indicators, the stock of office real estate in India has significantly grown in the last few years. In 2008, the top 8 cities in India cumulatively accounted for 278 mn sq ft office stock; which has now increased to 900+ mn sq ft. The expansion of office stock is not limited to Tier 1 cities alone. In the last few years, Tier 2 and 3 cities in India have also witnessed a rapidly rising demand and supply for office real estate in India. Factors such as business expansion, low costs, infrastructure development, rise of IT and the service industry, and availability of talent are some of key drivers of growth in office stock in Tier 2 & 3 cities. These factors along with increase in formal workforce in India will generate the demand for adequate volume of office space in India. To accommodate the burgeoning economic activity and formal employment, an estimated 2.7 bn sq ft of office space will be cumulatively required by 2034, i.e. an additional requirement of 1.7 bn sq ft in the next decade. As the sector scales up, the potential revenue generation from India's office real estate is estimated to be USD 125 bn in 2034.

Interrelationship between Real estate and Façade Fenestration:-

Indian façade and fenestration industry is directly linked to the construction and real-estate industry's performance. In India, the real estate sector is growing with a CAGR of 30%, making it an opportune market for investment currently. By 2040, it is predicted that the Indian real estate market will grow to Rs. 65,000 crore (US$ 9.30 billion) from Rs. 12,000 crore (US$ 1.72 billion) in 2019. The real estate sector in India is expected to reach a market size of US$ 1 trillion by 2030 from US$ 120 billion in 2017 and contribute 13% to the country's GDP by 2025. Retail, hospitality, and commercial real estate are also growing significantly, providing the much-needed infrastructure for India's growing needs.

As per ICRA estimates (an Indian independent and professional investment information and credit rating agency), Indian firms are expected to raise more than Rs. 3.5 trillion (US$ 48 billion) through infrastructure and real estate investment trusts in 2022, as compared with raised funds worth US$ 29 billion to date.

Business Process -Flow Chart

Brief Explanation: -

1. Marketing and Lead Generation:

We begin by actively reaching out to potential clients and nurturing long-term relationships through a strong sales pipeline. A notable 80% of our business comes from repeat clients, highlighting our service reliability and customer satisfaction. Weekly strategy meetings are conducted by the leadership team to review market trends and identify new client segments or project opportunities.

2. Client Engagement and Concept Design:

When a project inquiry is received, our team prepares initial cost estimates based on concept drawings. These visuals help the client understand the proposed system design and functionality. We also engage in value engineering to balance the desired aesthetics, technical performance, and budget constraints ensuring a feasible, cost-effective solution.

3. Detailed Design and Engineering:

Once a project is awarded, our design team develops detailed shop drawings based on the architectural plan and client specifications. These are further reviewed by consultants or project engineers to ensure they meet structural, safety, and performance standards.

4. Material Planning and Procurement:

After design approval, we prepare a detailed list of materials required for the project. Our internal system helps manage procurement, track inventory, and plan based on vendor lead times. The procurement process is closely monitored by the store and project teams to align with delivery timelines and site readiness.

5. Powder Coating and Surface Treatment:

Mill finished aluminium profiles undergo a powder coating process that includes a 7-tank chemical pre-treatment to ensure surface cleanliness, corrosion resistance, and long-lasting colour finish. This step ensures the architectural and environmental durability expectations.

6. Precision Fabrication:

Post-coating, the aluminium sections are fabricated using high-precision CNC and 12-axis machines. The process includes cutting, drilling, milling, and punching to prepare each component for assembly. This ensures the dimensions and holes are precise and match the project design exactly.

MANUFACTURING PROCESS:

A. Powder Coating and Surface Treatment –Process

Powder Coating and Surface Treatment -Flow Chart

Brief Explanation: -

1. Material Inspection & Pre-Cleaning: Incoming aluminium profiles are checked for surface defects, contamination, and damage. Basic cleaning removes dirt, oil, and debris.
2. Degreasing & Chemical Cleaning: The material is chemically cleaned to remove oils, grease, and oxidation that can affect coating adhesion.
3. Pre-Treatment Process: Profiles are processed through a series of chemical baths (alkaline, acidic, and neutralizing) to prepare the surface for coating, improve adhesion, and ensure corrosion resistance.
4. Drying: Cleaned profiles are dried completely to avoid any moisture during powder coating.
5. Powder Coating Application (Electrostatic Spray): Thermoset powder is applied using an electrostatic spray gun. The charged particles adhere uniformly to the grounded aluminium surface.
6. Curing in Oven: The coated profiles are moved into a curing oven where they are baked at the required temperature to fuse the powder into a smooth, durable finish.
7. Final Inspection & Quality Check: The cured profiles undergo visual and adhesion testing to ensure coating thickness, uniformity, colour, and bonding meet the required standards.
8. Material Storage / Dispatch for Fabrication: Approved coated profiles are stored in protective racks or moved directly to the fabrication line for further processing.

B. 7-Tank Chemical Pre-Treatment Process for Aluminium Powder Coating:

7-Tank Chemical Pre-Treatment Process for Aluminium Powder Coating -Flow Chart

Brief Explanation: -

1. Degreasing (Tank 1): The first step is degreasing, where aluminium profiles are immersed or sprayed with a degreasing solution. This treatment removes oil, grease, dust, and other contaminants deposited during manufacturing or handling. Thorough cleaning at this stage is essential, as it ensures the coating adheres strongly to the surface and prevents premature coating failure.
2. Water Rinse (Tank 2): Following degreasing, the profiles are rinsed in clean water. This step removes any residual degreasing chemicals, preventing contamination of the subsequent tanks. A proper rinse ensures that the surface is neutralized and clean for further treatment.
3. Derusting & Phosphating (Tank 3): The third stage involves derusting and phosphating. Aluminium surfaces are treated to remove any rust, oxides, or scale. At the same time, a thin phosphate layer is deposited onto the metal surface. This phosphate coating improves both corrosion resistance and coating adhesion. It provides a roughened base for the powder coating, ensuring the finish bonds more effectively and lasts longer.
4. Water Rinse (Tank 4): After phosphating, the aluminium is subjected to a second water rinse. This rinse removes excess phosphate chemicals that might otherwise remain on the surface. By washing away these residues, the rinse maintains surface purity and prevents chemical carry-over into the next stages.
5. Passivation (Tank 5): Next, the aluminium profiles are immersed in a passivation solution. This process seals the phosphate coating and provides an additional protective barrier against corrosion. By enhancing the performance of the phosphate layer, passivation ensures the aluminium is better equipped to withstand environmental conditions and retain coating quality over time.
6. Final Water Rinse (Tank 6): A final water rinse, usually with demineralized water, is carried out to remove all chemical traces from the previous processes. This rinse leaves the aluminium surface completely clean and free of impurities. This step is crucial, as even small chemical residues can interfere with powder coating adhesion.
7. Powder Coating & Curing (Tank 7 / Booth): The final stage involves powder coating application and curing. Aluminium profiles are electrostatically sprayed with powder coating, which adheres uniformly to the pre-treated surface. The coated profiles are then cured in an oven at temperatures around 180–200°C. This curing process melts and bonds the powder particles, forming a smooth, durable, and aesthetically pleasing finish that provides excellent resistance to weathering and corrosion.

C. Precision Fabrication –Process:

Precision Fabrication – Flow Chart

Brief Explanation: -

1. Job Order & Drawing Review: Each fabrication job begins with reviewing the approved shop drawings and job order. The design team ensures that the technical details, dimensions, and material specifications are clear for production.
2. Material Picking & Pre-Cutting: Required aluminium profiles and components are identified and picked from inventory. Basic cuts are made to prepare raw material lengths for CNC processing.
3. CNC Cutting: Using CNC machines, aluminium profiles are cut with precision according to project-specific dimensions. This step ensures uniformity and reduces errors in downstream processes.
4. Milling & Slotting: Milling machines are used to create clean slots, grooves, and edges that are essential for frame interlocking and fittings. Proper slotting is critical for tight assembly.
5. Drilling & Routing: Holes and routing paths are made for hinges, handles, locks, and drainage points. This is done using programmable machines for accuracy.
6. Component Labelling & Sorting: Finished components are labeled, grouped by system type or opening size, and sorted as per the job order for smooth transition to the assembly team.
7. Assembly
Our trained workforce assembles the processed components under strict quality control procedures, with supervision during and after the assembly, to ensure precision, proper alignment, and product integrity.
8. Final QC Check: A quality check is done to confirm accuracy of cuts, holes, finishes, and markings.

RAW MATERIALS:

A. Procurement Process:-

Brief Explanation :-

1. Indent Creation:
The requesting department raises an indent specifying the required materials, quantity, and purpose. This step initiates the procurement cycle.
2. Purchase Requisition:
The indent is converted into a formal purchase requisition, reviewed and routed to the procurement team for further action.

3. Generate Inquiry (RFQ):

A Request for Quotation (RFQ) is sent to approved vendors listed in the Vendor Master and Material Master databases for pricing and terms.

4. Purchase Order (PO):

After quotation analysis, a Purchase Order is created and sent to the selected vendor, defining the scope, price, delivery terms, and conditions.

5. PO Approval:

Internal management or project authority reviews and approves the PO. If revisions are needed, the PO may be amended before final approval.

6. Goods Receipt:

Upon delivery, the received goods are inspected for quantity and quality. Accepted materials are recorded in the inventory.

7. Invoice Verification:

The vendor's invoice is cross-checked against the PO and goods receipt to ensure accuracy before payment is processed.

8. Payment Release:

Once verified, the invoice is forwarded to the finance department for payment processing and closure of the procurement cycle.

Procurement Process – Flow Chart

INVENTORY MANAGEMENT

The Company follows a structured and project-specific inventory management system tailored to the requirements of turnkey contracting. Inventory primarily comprises aluminum, glass, and hardware project-specific consumables procured for ongoing projects. Inventory procurement is planned based on project execution schedules, bill of quantities, and work breakdown structures, ensuring timely availability of critical inputs while minimizing holding costs.

The Company employs a centralized procurement with on-site inventory controls to monitor movement, consumption, and balance of materials. Periodic physical verification is conducted to reconcile system records with actual stock. To mitigate the risk of obsolescence or pilferage, inventory at project sites is maintained under supervision, for issuance and consumption logging. Project-specific inventory is generally not held for extended periods post-completion and is either transferred to other ongoing projects or disposed of appropriately.

Inventory levels are reviewed regularly to optimize working capital, avoid overstocking, and ensure uninterrupted project execution. The Company has not historically held significant finished goods inventory, given the nature of its business, where outputs are delivered upon project completion and handover.

COMPETITION

Our Company operates in a competitive and fragmented industry, which includes numerous regional and national players engaged in façade, glazing, aluminium fabrication, and related architectural solutions. We face competition from both organized and unorganized companies, including small-scale contractors, mid-sized businesses, and well-established firms across different parts of India.

The degree of competition varies depending on factors such as project size, type of service, client preferences, geographic location, contract value, and execution timelines. In many cases, client decisions are influenced by a combination of technical capability, past performance, product quality, pricing, and relationships built over time. While we believe our commitment to quality, innovation, and timely delivery offers a competitive edge, we continue to compete with local service providers who may offer lower pricing or possess strong regional networks. Some of these competitors may have greater financial or operational flexibility.

(ii) Defined Benefits Plan:

The liability for the defined benefit plan of gratuity is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation done by an independent actuary at the period end, which is calculated using projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains and losses which comprise experience adjustment and the effect of change in actuarial assumptions are recognized in profit and loss account.

K Impairment of Assets:

The recoverable amount is the greater of the assets net selling price and value in the uses which is determined based on the estimated future cash flow discounted to their present values. PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UPI FOR BIDS BY INDIVIDUAL BIDDERS AS PER THE UPI CIRCULARS

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by Individual Investors through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to upto three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Individual Investors, besides the modes of Bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.
- b) Phase II: This phase was applicable from July 1, 2019 and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. SEBI vide its circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till March 31, 2020. Further, pursuant to SEBI circular number SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, this phase was extended till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form without UPI by Individual Bidders through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds was discontinued and replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public Issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days (T+6) during this phase.
- c) Phase III/ T+3: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023 and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). In this phase, the time duration from public Issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

The issue is being made under Phase III of the UPI:

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked not later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalized. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Issue BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs issuing the facility of making applications in public issues will also provide the facility to make application using UPI. The Company was required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/ or payment instructions of the Individual Investors using the UPI.

Further, in terms of the UPI Circulars, the payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be required to be undertaken pursuant to an application made by the SCSBs to the BRLM, and such application were made only after (i) unblocking of application amounts for each application received by the SCSB has been fully completed, and (ii) applicable compensation relating to investor complaints has been paid by the SCSB.

Our Company was required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/or payment instructions of the UPI Bidders using the UPI. The processing fees for applications made by Individual Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the remitter banks (SCSBs) only after such banks provide a written confirmation in compliance

Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020 issued on December 8, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank or fund in India.
